Melissa Odabash Swimsuit Collections â€“ Redefining the standards in sexy and functional swimwear by Swimwear

Article published on April 5th 2012 | Music

Every woman wants a new swimsuit that will allow you to swim and sunbathe with ease and at the same time make you look good and feel sexy. Designer swimsuits provide us with all these qualities and much more, and this helps to boost our confidence and love for our bodies. The Melissa Odabash swimsuit collection is one of the most sought-after designer swimwear thanks to unique simple creations which are not designed in the â€œlook-at-meâ€• theme. Having being designed by a former swimsuit model, Melissa Odabash, it really comes as no surprise that this collection of swimwear pays full attention to all the nitty-gritty details.

Most ladies love swimsuits that have body-flattering designs and which to a suitable extent provide glamorous appeal; this is exactly what a Melissa Odabash swimsuit provides. Considering that these swimsuits have been featured on the covers of top magazines such as US Glamour, and recalling her zebra print bikini which was a bestseller on Victoriaâ€™s Secret Catalogue, plus several other designs that were featured on multiple Sports Illustrated Swimsuit issues, it is plain to see why celebrities such as Pamela Anderson, Jennifer Lopez, Cheryl Cole, Cindy Crawford, Halle Berry and Jemima Khan, among others are firm believers in this brand.

In the more than a decade of their existence Melissa Odabash swimwear collections have continued to diversify and now include everything from beachwear, swimwear and ready-to-wear items, all which have enjoyed much popularity and especially in the exclusive market. Indeed the Melissa Odabash swimsuit brand has in its own special way set the pace in luxury holiday lifestyles by redefining high fashion in the swimwear world. It is no wonder that British Vogue branded it â€œThe Ferrari of the Bikini Worldâ€•.

Some of the best releases of the Melissa Odabash swimsuit collections include the Evita, Florida, Paris, Portugal, Sydney and Topaz. There are always great timeless evening dresses and kaftans to go with these swimsuits and so you need not worry if you need to go straight for dinner after an afternoon at the beach or by the poolside.

Some of the swimsuits tips that Melissa Odabash herself has offered are as follows: bikini bottoms with ties on the side make straight up-down bodied women look curvier. An underwire swimsuit top is not suitable for big bosomed ladies as it looks more of a bra; one should instead go for a top with adjustable ties to offer the support required. For pear-shaped ladies, accessorized bikini tops with a plain or simple bikini bottom help to balance the upper and lower body.
