Top 5 Things to Do after Bagging Airline tickets to Hurghada by Samwalker

Article published on February 8th 2012 | Aviation

Hurghada, the thriving tourist destination of Egypt, casts a spell on every traveller taking flights to this baffling city. Located next to the legendry Red Sea, the resort makes for an apt place for devoting oneself to delights of the sea. The magnificent resort of Hurghada is a place for having a potpourri of joyful experiences. Be it sightseeing, dining, shopping or roistering, fun and ecstasy are sure to follow like shadow.

Here is the sampling of top 5 things to do that are well worth the money spent on airline tickets to Hurghada.

Dive in at the Spectacular Sites

Tempting millions of divers to look for cheap airline tickets to Hurghada, diving spots hold the essence of oneâ€™s visit to this enchanting resort. Owing to the proximity with Red Sea, the place is brimming with countless diving spots that offer a mesmerizing assortment of colourful marine life. Abu Nuhas wrecks boasts many captivating diving sites including the Erg Abu Nugar and the Gotta Abu Nugar North and make for an ideal destination for revelling in the splendour of ocean. The horseshoe shaped reef of Shaab El Erg is replete with Bottlenose Dolphins and other fascinating sea creatures. Umm Gammar, Carless Reef, Seastar or Japanese Wrecks, Chrisoula K, Rosalie Moller and Woodvalley Reef are some other popular sites that offer unforgettable diving experience to travellers grabbing tickets to Hurghada.

Bask in the Glory of its Sun-Soaked Beaches

For beach enthusiasts, airline tickets to Hurghada are like tickets to paradise. The resort flaunts a long stretch of golden beaches and makes for an apt destination for spending some time in the lap of nature. Visitors can also revel in number of thrilling water sports like windsurfing, sailing and deep-sea fishing. Basking at its sun-soaked beaches and enjoying a sun downer while beholding the scarlet sunset are few things that will remain etched in the mind of every traveller descending upon the gilded shores of Hurghada!

Admire the charms at Marine Biology Museum

Home to riveting collection of flora and fauna of Red Sea, Marine Biology Museum is a second to none destination for those who do not want to go deep into the sea to encounter the wonderful marine life. A dulcet stroll along the underwater path provides you with a golden opportunity of experiencing the overwhelming range of coral reefs, turtles, sharks and much more. The Marine Biology Museum tour is surely a must-do, once you have booked air tickets to Hurghada.

Carouse at Hurghada Marina Boulevard

Fancy some â€˜realâ€™ entertainment? Make way to Hurghada Marine Boulevard and take delights at some of the extraordinary offerings of the place. No wonder, spending a day at the boulevard is well worth the money spent on air tickets to Hurghada. The remarkable place hosts regular performances of stilt-walking, magicians, street theatre, street performances and fire shows. Dotted with high end restaurants, uber-cool discos and clubs and boasting the glitzy shopping outlets, the place satiates oneâ€™s craving for sheer entertainment. Shopping is indeed big here with some bold-faced brands like Timberland, Levi's and Dockers.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/aviation-articles/top-5-things-to-do-after-bagging-airline-tickets-to-hurghada.htm - Article Side

Samwalker - About Author:
Sam Walker is a travel consultant. He writes articles on holiday destinations, hotels, travel safety tips, and cheap a air tickets to Hurghada, Dubai, Delhi, Cairo etc.

Article Keywords:
things to do in Hurghada, tourist destination of Egypt, air tickets to Hurghada, beach holiday in Hurghada

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!