Article published on December 30th 2011 | Aviation

The largest island of Thailand, Phuket is a favourite destination of honeymooners, sybarites and party animals. Mesmerizing vistas of natural splendour, white-sand beaches, lush rainforests, top-end hotels resorts and intoxicating nightclubs make Phuket, an all inclusive holiday spot for travellers. Besides, the bright and breezy festivals of the island add cherry on top and decidedly sprinkle zing to oneâ€™s tour.

Take a look at some of the alluring festivals and events that entice millions of holidaymakers to book tickets to Phuket.

Phuket Vegetarian Festival

Phuket Vegetarian Festival is an extravaganza for the tourists. The annual event is held during the ninth lunar month of the Chinese calendar, in September or early October. Celebrated for honouring the gods and getting bestowed with good fortune, the festival lures many cultural buffs to revel in the jovial aura. During the Phuket Vegetarian Festival, the locals adhere to 10-day vegetarian diets and pray to the Nine Emperor Gods. Several rituals are performed at the temples and shrines. Travellers grabbing air tickets to Phuket at this time can witness the bewildering display of devotees climbing ladders with bladed rungs and walking barefooted over hot coals.

Chinese New Year in Phuket

Held in the month of January or February, Chinese New Year is observed with great gusto. It is one of the prominent events in Thailand. With spellbinding aura, captivating decorations, scrumptious cuisines, eye-catchy fireworks, shopping bargains and breathtaking dance and music performances, Chinese New Year in Phuket offers myriad of chances to enjoy. Be it epicurean, shopper or cultural buff, the festival undoubtedly makes for a best time to lay hands on air tickets to Phuket.

Phuket King's Cup Regatta

Held in the month of December at Kata Beach and one of the popular sailing events in Thailand, Phuket Kingâ€™s Cup Regatta provides the golden opportunity of beholding the some of the best yachtsmen in the world and elegant yachts. The event was started to commemorate the birthday of King Bhumibol Adulyadej of Thailand. Besides the exuberant races, one can take delights in charismatic performances of musicians and international bands and can feast eyes on remarkable Thai dance performances and fireworks displays.

Chao Le Boat Floating Festival

Chao Le Boat Floating Festival is a quaint festival, celebrated at the Sea Gipsy villages of Phuket in May and October. During the festival, the small boats, decked up with fingernail clippings, strands of hair and tiny dolls, are left adrift in the darkness of night. And after releasing the boats, the villagers perform a local dance around their own boats. The appealing ritual is observed for driving away the evils and makes for an unusual experience for travellers netting airline tickets to Phuket.

Songkran Festival

Celebrated in April for heralding the Thai New Year, Songkran Festival is the best way to jollify the Thai culture. On this day, families and friends visit the temples and shrine for sprinkling water on Buddha images and taking blessings from the monk. On this day, the whole country basks in the glory of joy and sprinkle water on each other.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/aviation-articles/top-events-and-festivals-to-net-tickets-to-phuket.htm - Article Side

Samwalker - About Author:
Sam Walker is associated with a Airticket.co.uk as expert writer since 2 years. He is consultant and expert advisor on a air tickets to Phuket and writing on air travel safety tips and advices on world top holidays destinations.

Article Keywords:
Events and festivals in Phuket, air tickets to Phuket, tickets to Phuket, airline tickets to Phuket, events in Phuket

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!