It has been thought that the new set of rule of regulations has been circulated as it is a very diplomatic and sensitive issue between Vietnam and India. It has been clearly stated in the new set of rules and regulations on Vietnam Visa for Indians that people who are seeking to visit the country must have a supporting representative in the country who will be asking for their visa approval letter granted by the Vietnam Immigration Department as well as providing guarantee for them if they want to set up their own business in Vietnam. The processing charges of Vietnam Visa for Indians fixed in the new set of rules and regulations varies according to two circumstances: for those Indian people who want to go to the country for some casual tourist purpose or for some business purpose but do not have any guarantee of a company in Vietnam and for those people who want to enter the country for some serious business purpose with the guarantee of a Vietnam company.

So as well all can see the new rules and regulations of Vietnam Visa for Indians has been put forward as an Indian company can establish its own collaborate company in Vietnam. So the country wants to sign a former agreement for that. The company has to sign an agreement from and submit it to the Vietnam Immigration Department while applying for the Vietnam visa.

For people who want to go to the country for casual tour purpose or even for business purpose but without any guarantee from a company in Vietnam the processing charges of Vietnam visa will be 57 USD for one month single visa and 57 USD for one month multiple visa too while 80 USD for three months single visa and again 80 USD for three months multiple visa. For these people there are many organizations that arrange the needed documents for Vietnam Visa for Indians via their representatives and charge a very low amount of money.

In case of people who want to visit the country for business purpose and has the guarantee from a Vietnam company the charges for processing Vietnam visa will be â€“ 45 USD for one month single Visa, 47 USD for one month multiple visa while 59 USD for three months single visa and again 59 USD for three months multiple visa.
