News is basically anything that has an effect on the reader and one that the reader will deem worthy of being read. News should be such that interests the reader and it is very important that while the newspapers entertain the readers, they also fulfil their duty of being the opinion leader. Newspapers and news channels have multiplied in number, thus giving the people a wider option to choose from. While some go for the serious and true news, others are lured by the â€˜breaking newsâ€™ ticker that, dramatizes a simple news and puts it through to the audience. Indiaâ€™s national language is Hindi and thus there are more Hindi samachar options available.

There are many newspapers and news channels that offer the Indian audience with their daily dose of Hindi samachar. Some popular Hindi news channels and newspapers follow the breaking news trend as it appeals to a large number of audience and the news channels and newspapers are supposed to put forth a show that appeals to the mass. DainikJagran is one of the most reliable and popular Hindi news sources. This newspaper has been in the market for a long time now and captures a big share of the market. DainikJagran is read religiously by a number of people, because this popular Hindi news source has proved itself worthy of the peopleâ€™s trust by being the opinion leader for years. There was a time when the Hindi samachar was a short segment for about one hour a day on the television and the newspapers on sale could be counted on your fingers, but the times have changed and with the changing times, the number of these newspapers and news channels too have changed drastically.

Today there are channels that broadcast Hindi news all day long and Hindi newspapers are abundant. DainikJagran publishes various kinds of news and like sports, entertainment, political, economic and more. The newspaper has published news useful to the readers for years being the ideal opinion leader. To put forth the right news and not misguide the readers on a particular situation, is what a journalist should do to be true to their profession. Journalism does not just need people who write well the journalism industry needs people who have the courage to write the right thing. They can only write the truth if they feel safe and are not stubbed by a pressure group.
