Hindi News Websites are in Vogue Now by Poojarajput

Article published on May 25th 2012 | Others

In the olden times newspapers were the sole source of news or rather reliable news in India, but as the time passed many different sources introduced themselves like the radio and television. Radio and television initially had news segments at a specific time and the people would leave all their chores to listen to what is going on in the world. This is not the scenario today. Today if you want to get updates or get to know some news you can just turn on the television and you will be showered with various television channels that offer you news all day long. This is not the latest development in the news industry though, the latest development is the news websites and the mobile updates that keep you informed of the news while you are on the go.

Hindi news industry too has come a long way and so has the state news in India. The UP news in Hindi newspapers or channels has their own segment and there are also channels that broadcast UP news in Hindi just for the people in Uttar Pradesh. There are also Hindi news websites that are doing incredibly well and get a good readership. Hindi being Indiaâ€™s national language almost all of the country has basic knowledge of the language. The Hindi news websites like all the other websites have various pages and segments like sports, television, movies, politics, economy etc. and the world news is the new addition. UP news in Hindi and Kanpur news in Hindi both is state news that publish and broadcast the news about these states in particular.

The Kanpur news in Hindi has a lot to do with the language, as Hindi is spoken and understood by the major population and in the same way UP news in Hindi too appeals to the people there. The language matters a lot, when it comes to journalism; and when a state is more comfortable with one language they should be offered with it. Kanpur news in Hindi is easily available on television channels or newspapers or on any Hindi news website that offers news of every state. The news industry is supposed to act as the opinion leader and guide the people on a particular situation. They form a peopleâ€™s opinion on a topic of great importance; thus they have to carry a lot of responsibility for every word and every phrase they write.
