Article published on May 3rd 2012 | Seo

To deliver keyword rankings, competitive traffic and results to oneâ€™s online marketing campaign, custom solutions and research-driven methods are followed by leading SEO service experts in Vancouver. They make best possible efforts to maintain the consistent rankings and development of the clientâ€™s business in the online world.

According to the professional internet marketing companies, individuals have some misconceptions about the SEO services. And such facts will be cleared through this article.

Check out the following facts:

Guarantee results

Of course, a lot of techniques and methods like PPC, etc, are followed by SEO professionals to make the sites ranking higher over major search engines but this is also a fact that the practices do not guarantee results. It is not simply to build a few links and get the site to rank on the top searches, it is more than that. The wider picture about the searches will make you to understand that thousands of websites are there who want to rank the same keyword on top ten searches. Thus, the services can never guarantee results; it can only offer quality of services.

Keywords on top

Another fact according to them is that no keywords can remain on the top searches always. The fact is Google update its database regularly and thus SERPs changes accordingly. Search engine optimization is not a onetime process, itâ€™s an ongoing process.

Fluctuations of rankings

Google is known to experiment its search algorithm regularly and this means that one day one may face the drop down of keywords rankings and vice versa. But, it doesnâ€™t mean that one should start panicking or blaming to the service provider. With quality services, one always has to chances to get back to the top eventually.

PR and rankings

It is understood by some people that PR affects rankings but the fact is PR has nothing to do with the rankings. Many clients think that SEO is about raising PR. The days have gone when PR was taken into account for analyzing the value of websites. What matters is to have a number of quality backlinks.

There are many more facts which should be known to all like the Search Engine Optimization is not just about article or directory submissions. It is an ongoing process to maintain the competitiveness and quality of websites. The SEO services in Vancouver are all about bringing quality results; it is about slow and steady wins the race.
