Numerology - why it is essential to understand by ROBBI Combs

Article published on July 12th 2012 | Book Marketing

Just before you're born it is decided what assets you are going to have at your disposal and what challenges you'll have to overcome for your personal spiritual evolution and progression. Lots of people stumble throughout their lives attempting to figure out what their goal is via trial and error. Some individuals never actually work out why they had been here and what it was they were supposed to be doing with their lives to progress spirituality and even attain a lasting happiness and contentment. You'll find other people that comprehend precisely what energies push and pull at them through their lives because they have tapped in to the wisdom provided via Numerology. Let me clarify.

The pre-specified assets and difficulties reveal themselves via energy. Scientists have verified that ultimately every thing consists of energy vibrating at various frequencies so it should be no surprise that we are influenced by our own individual power fields. While in the womb your mother would have picked up in your energy, most commonly at and unconscious level. Over the course of the pregnancy she is going to unconsciously start to associate names with all the feelings she has of you. Then, when it's the right time you are born and you're named. With any luck your mother will have a major influence over that name as within this name she represents the energies she has unconsciously sensed in you.

Your name as well as your date of birth are the ciphers that represent the energy that will influence your life. Each is reduced through centuries old practice into numbers that are codes for the real you. The you which you show the globe, the you which you know deep inside. Your desires, your nature, your destiny are all encoded within your name and date of birth. Through numerological evaluation you might come to know your self and how you might be to progress as well as anybody can.

Lets take the very first 3 numbers as an instance. Number 1 numerology is really a cipher that represents the energy of independence, authority, self confidence, action, new beginnings. Folks with this energy dominant in their chart can be fairly formidable but very difficult to handle as well. Numerology number 2 is a cipher that represents the energy of sweetness, partnership and service. The people using the two energy dominant in their chart can be the best buddy you ever had, the nicest person you could hope to know, often there to help other individuals. But they can be indecisive and anxiety ridden also. Numerology 3 alternatively tends to become an easy going entertaining loving well-liked and glamorous energy. Those with 3 powerful in their charts tend to express themselves nicely, talk a lot and like to be in social gatherings. They can also be fairly vain and egotistical and use their ability to communicate to hurt folks as opposed to assist them.
