Wrist Watches by ANJA Dorsey

Article published on August 9th 2012 | Book Marketing

Wrist Watches:

A watch is a small clock, typically worn either on the wrist or attached on a chain and carried in a pocket; wristwatches, however, are the most common type of watch used today. Watches evolved in the 17th century from spring powered clocks, which appeared in the 15th century. The first watches were strictly mechanical. As technology progressed, the mechanisms used to measure time have, in some cases, been replaced by use of quartz vibrations or electromagnetic pulses.

As wrist watches became more and more popular, designers began to deviate from the standard round style and came up with a wide variety of designs. Rather than being merely a functional tool, the wrist watch evolved into a fashion accessory - in fact, a fashion necessity-for most. Today's watches come in any color, any style.

Since the first wrist watches, these portable time pieces have become more than just a way to keep track of appointments. The numerous kinds and styles of wrist watches make it possible to have a watch for every occasion, or even every outfit. Adding a splash of color, shine or style to any ensemble, the wrist watch is a perfect way to add just that special, final touch to any outfit or any occasion from casual to the highest fashion.

Today's wrist watches are also high-tech, precision machines, able to give the time to the exact second. Some even provide times from multiple time zones, or can be used under water or under other unfavorable conditions. Even with competition from other time keeping devices such as cell phones and PDAs, the wrist watch remains a â€œmust have" for the twenty-first century.

Fantastic wrist watches which are developed with exact accuracy are the Kenneth Cole Watches. However Tag Heuer Watches along with D&G Watches, have massive selections of elegant wrist watches, to suit any special occasion. These wrist watches are not only precision devices but they offer you the correct time all the time while being fashionable and trendy at the same time.

The true watch fanatics are known to be bit pedantic when making their decision. Investing money a beautiful wristwatch that is the fashion statement and a status symbol all-in-one, yet have pin-point accuracy and reliability is defiantly an intelligent option. World class high-end wrist watches happen to be fairly expensive for the reason that the quality is flawless plus they are efficient.

Using attractive wristwatches can show your style. There are two wristwatches which actually stand out in this category for instance Best Citizen Watches as well as Nixon Watches. Nixon watches specifically, are well-liked and also sort after. These wristwatches have got pizzazz, class and tend to be good quality, therefore an excellent investment. With all the current fake different watches which are sold in the market place Nixon watches have were able to brand them in a manner that they sell well and they are highly sought after.

Most very well known brands like the particular Bulova watches, Citizens watches and Casio watch are still the stalwarts of this business. These are all still made from very good metals and many with wonderful leather bands. Pure gold continues to be used as well as sterling silver and stainless steel. Unfortunately the marketplace is inundated with a supposedly authentic phony; therefore do examine the labels and the little print if you are in the market to get a high-class premium watch.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/book-marketing-articles/wrist-watches.htm - Article Side

ANJA Dorsey - About Author:
a cartier watch repair | a watch repair service | a watch service center

Article Keywords:
watches,jwelary

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!