The worldwide survey conducted few months ago provided information that 90% of population comprises of salaried people across the countries. This large population is employed in various companies, industries, institutes, etc. Pharmaceutical fraud, healthcare fraud and abuse, etc are the issues that disturb and affect this group of population a lot.

To fight such issues people can take the help of whistleblower attorneys in the respective areas. In the developed countries, whistleblower attorneys and whistleblower protection act are highly famous and known to every individual. People who are employed in the medical institutes such hospitals or clinic or in any pharmaceutical shops can become whistleblower if they witness any frauds or misconduct happening in the entities. Similarly, people who have been victims due to the medicare frauds and abuse, they too can opt for the medicare fraud lawyers or whistleblower attorneys in the country.

The victim or the whistleblower can collect all the necessary information to appeal or file for claim or injustice or misconduct happening or observing in the medical institutes or anywhere in the in the companies. The lawyers are highly seasoned and have wide experience in the field. Even the cases that have weak evidences and information are well protected and made strong by adding relevant witnesses to the appeals. The lawyers have got wide exposers various areas in the industry. The lawyers have fight against many civil and criminal cases and defended wins of the clients and victims.

In 80's there was a new act introduced in the law, whistleblower protection act. This act helped many exploited and well-observed witness to raise their voice against the issues happened with themselves or with others in the court. The whistleblower protection act includes that during the jurisdiction; the alleged body can not harass, terminate, denote, threaten or discriminate the right of whistleblower or victim.

The alleged body also can not make any changes in the terms and conditions in the policies till the time judgment is not granted. After the declaration of the act, the whistleblower attorneys as well as the people found more strength to appeal for various injustice happening in the society or in surroundings concerning to medicare fraud and abuse.

Resembling to whistleblower protection act, the False Claims Act (FCA) also helped the various medical employee and practitioners to blow whistle against healthcare fraud and abuse, pharmaceutical fraud etc happening in the government or in the government authorities. Therefore, now all the salaried employees and people can blow a whistle against the medicare frauds happening in their surrounding without fearing the alleged bodies.
