It is a well-known fact for psychics that each and every one of us has Chakras and an Aura that influence our body. This Chakras and Aura is known as psychic energy.

Likened to an energy field of light surrounding us like one is in a bubble, basically, a personâ€™s psychic energy in laymanâ€™s term is a personâ€™s â€œpersonal spaceâ€•.

To better understand what psychic energy really is, hereâ€™s a list of facts and myths about psychic energy:

Facts:

Psychic Energy is believed to be force of strong, powerful and all pervasive but invisible mental waves, which has the capability to travel across the â€˜worldsâ€™ and accomplish Leeds which ordinary human beings can only dream of.

First Law of psychic energy states that Psychic energy waves which are unseen waves like sound, radio, electricity, light and etc. are vibrating energy.

The Second law of psychic energy states that â€œThe mind is an 'energy station' which creates transmits and receives energy.â€• The will (of the mind) is believed to have the capability to change the form of energy. While, thoughts and images, which are waves of energy, has the ability to be transmitted to and from human minds within the earth plane and to human and other entities in the afterlife in a process called telepathy.

The Third law of psychic energy states that each of us possesses a body that is made up of vibrationary energy which is a duplicate of the physical body and will survive physical death. This body of vibrationary energy which is invisible to physical eyes has the ability to change form but can never be destroyed and retains consciousness.

The Fourth law of psychic energy states that the afterlife possesses different levels of energy which produce different spheres according to the speed of vibration. The faster the vibrations of a sphere, the higher and more spiritually evolved the entities which reside there are.

The 5th law of psychic energy states that the more spiritually evolved a being is, the brighter the energy of the aura.

The 6th law of psychic energy states that materialization is a result of the slowing down of the speed of the atomic vortices of the energy. Thus, speeding up the vortices will result in de-materialization.

The Seventh law of psychic energy, also known as the Law of Cause and Effect, which states that for every (energy) action, there is an opposite (an energy) reaction. Psychic energy, like all forms of energy, is a â€˜boomerangâ€™ - the energy you give out will inevitably return to you.

Psychic energy are universal life force that flows within and between all things, which is believed to be some form of vitalism, doctrines of subtle bodies or concepts such as qi (In traditional Chinese culture, the life energy), prana (the Sanskrit word for "vital life"), or kundalini (in yoga, a "corporeal energy").

There is no psychic energy that is used 100% perfectly. This is because, we have free will, so, the choices that our souls make, can affect the outcome. Our choices can have an impact on the time lines completely or even take an event out of someoneâ€™s reality.

Psychic energy waves can be used to attack someone.

Psychic energy becomes drained, as well as can become contaminated with other energy. This happens in situations when psychics are open while working with clients.

You can rejuvenate your psychic energy through everyday experiences.

Each one of us has psychic energy to one degree or another and it is very possible to help it grow.

To grow your psychic energy, you have to tune within yourself. You must try to be aware of your thoughts, your emotions and your own energy flow. Doing this will help you to start taking control of what energy you put out as well as what energy you will receive.

Feeling the energy of others and of all living things is a really good step in connecting with your own psychic energy.

Keeping your body healthy and hydrated is extremely important for your psychic energy.
