During his childhood, Tiger Woods started playing golf when he was just two years old and he learned how to play in such a way that he defeated his father in a golf game when he was just eleven years old. He came back to play after the surgery but he could not play for the entire season in the year 2008 due to another knee surgery.

Then everything was alright and he won many events in 2009 until when breaking news about Tiger Woods being involved in many marital infidelities started hitting the headlines. This was the time when he had to through a very difficult phase. Due to this he had to drop out of the game for a certain period of time. There were marital disputes due to the above mentioned reason and ultimately his marriage came to an end. Now he has returned to the game again. It will take some time for Tiger Woods to regain his lost position. His fans are hoping for the best as they want him to become Worldâ€™s No-1 golfer again.
