Auctions offer a unique way to score some of the highest ticket price items at a fraction of the cost. This is especially useful when golf is one of the most expensive sports in the field. PennyAthletics.com is a penny auction site dedicated exclusively to sporting goods, golf being a big part of their inventory. Their golf-related auctions can be anything from top-of-the-line golf balls, like Titleist ProV1â€™s, to brand new golf clubs from all different manufacturers: Titleist, Taylormade, Callaway, and more. These golf items often sell for under a dollar, while in stores they can retail for over 15 times that much.

In addition, other than major auction sites, there are not many â€œgolf auctionâ€• sites out there to date. PennyAthletics.com is one of the few auction sites out there that repeatedly purchases golf equipment to list on its website. Even golf accessories like Oakley Sunglasses are listed and are offered brand new, still in the box. Sunglasses, in particular, can be a great addition to any golfers game while protecting from harmful UV rays as well.

In conclusion, PennyAthletics.com is one of the few auction websites that offers specifically golf equipment and golf accessories. Recent sleeves of top of the line golf balls have sold for under a dollar and there is still a lot of other great deals waiting for any one to come and claim them. If you are a golfer looking for a cheaper way to pay for the sport, PennyAthletics.com can definitely help put a better budget on your golf game today.
