Wrestle Mania has been one of the biggest and entertaining pay-per-views for many years. This year it is going to be more exciting and electrifying and the Sun Life Stadium in Miami Gardens, Florida is going to be filled with millions of fans who would be cheering and backing their favorite wrestlers on April 1, 2012.

The event of Wrestle Mania dates back to the mid 1980's and is continuing for many years. This is a flagship event of WWE and one of the most successful, entertaining and the longest running professional events in the world. and the wrestling history which was conceptualized by the owner of WWE Mr. Vince McMahon. Besides having one of the highest viewership and being the top grossing event, Wrestle Mania has established the careers and boosted the stardom of various wrestlers like The Rock, John Cena, the Undertaker, Hulk Hogan, Shawn Michaels, Bret Hart, Stone Cold Steven Austin and other wrestlers.

It has also established the careers of many other popular wrestlers. The event saw the regular appearance and participation of many celebrities who were not only the guest ring announcers and referees, but also participants in the ring action. All these years celebrities like Snoop Dogg, Pamela Anderson, Mike Tyson, Donald Trump and many more have made their presence felt during the Wrestle Mania event.

For this Wrestle Mania, i.e. Wrestle Mania XXVIII, till now one match is scheduled which is between the 'People's Champion' The Rock against the 'Doctor of Thugnanomics' John Cena. The rivalry between both the superstars dates back to the Wrestle Mania XXVII where The Rock's involvement lead to the defeat of John Cena to the WWE champion Miz. The next day on Raw, Cena challenged The Rock for a match at Wrestle Mania XXVIII for which The Rock agreed.

Both the superstars have a huge fan following and know that they will be the center of attraction during the Wrestle Mania XXVIII. It was quite evident during the pay-per-view Survivor Series when a match was made where both these superstars had to become tag team partners and square off against the team of Miz and R-Truth. As per the officials at the WWE, the ticket sales for the Survivor Series were booming just to see Cena and The Rock teaming up as a team. So naturally you can imagine what would happen if these both superstars were to face off each other as opponents in the mecca of sports entertainment i.e. Wrestle Mania XXVIII. The Sun Life Stadium in Miami Gardens, Florida is going to be packed houseful of crazy and die-hard fans of these superstars.

It is going to be one of the electrifying matches in the history of WWE, and both the superstars know that they have a momentum before going into the match. At the end of the Survivor Series tag team match, the Rock made a statement to the fans and as well as to Cena by hitting a Rocks Bottom on Cena. Most of the fans of John Cena know that Cena is not going to take The Rock as an easy opponent as it has been several years since Rock has taken part in a match. Well, Cena has never in his entire WWE career taken his opponents lightly. He knows that they are unpredictable and can be at times difficult to defeat. So in the case of Rock, he is going to be well prepared and be a tough competitor.

The same can be said of The Rock. Even though Rock hasn't taken part in a live event or practiced for one, he would make sure that Cena realizes why people call him the People's Champion. He sure made Miz and R-Truth know that during the Survivor Series tag team match.

One thing I know like all hardcore WWE fans is that this Wrestle Mania is going to be different from the ones in the past. After a long hiatus, if Undertaker comes back and is challenged by some wrestler to a match at Wrestle Mania XXVIII, it is going to be a huge extravagant event as fans will be eager to see whether Undertaker's undefeated streak at Wrestle Mania will be broken or not. So all you die-hard wrestling maniacs, make sure not to miss this opportunity and watch it at the Sun Life Stadium or at your home on your TV connected to Dish Network.
