Article Side

Cheap Flight to Johannesburg - Travel from London to Johannesburg by Kevin Thomas

Article published on January 20th 2012 | Travel

The city of Johannesburg being the economic and commercial hub of South Africa is one of the richest countries of the world. Earlier it did not hold much significance in the tourism sector in the global scenario. Other cities like Cape Town were more visited and Johannesburg was used just as a transit point. But lately the city along with the neighboring city Pretoria, forming the Gauteng Province has developed many tourist destinations. With ample publicity these tourist destinations in and around Johannesburg has become very popular among the travelers of Flights to Johannesburg.

Among all types of tourist destinations, Johannesburg and its surrounding areas boast of many wildlife sanctuaries and zoos. The most significant among them are the Lion Park, The Roodeplaat, Suikerbosrand Nature Reserve, National Zoo of South Africa etc. These are ideal tourist destinations for adventure seekers and nature lovers all alike. These sanctuaries and zoos are all working towards the conservation of endangered species of animals and birds. With flora and fauna found in abundance the travelers of cheap flights to Johannesburg can definitely look forward to enjoy a magnificent holiday trip out there.

The Lion Park is a conservation area spread across five hundred acres of land. It is situated in the Gauteng province close to the cities of Johannesburg and Pretoria. The park consists of 80 lions which also include the rare species of white lions. The area also has additionally other species of herbivores like antelope, blesbok, gnu, impala, gemsbok, zebra  and carnivorous animals like cheetah and wild dog. The travelers of Johannesburg flights can view these animals from their cars itself. The park also has picnic areas, barbecue sites, a swimming pool and a restaurant for entertainment and eating purposes.

The Roodeplaat area situated near Pretoria has a wildlife reserve and a dam. The wildlife century is a paradise for bird watchers and animal lovers as it is home to 250 species of birds and animals like zebra, warthog, wildebeest, impala etc. The dam is an ideal destination for adventure seekers with activities like fishing, camping and hiking etc. The Suikerbosrand Nature Reserve on the other hand is home to rare species of animals like porcupine, aardvark, springbok, zebra and hyena. The travelers of direct flights to Johannesburg should visit this destination as it situated very close to the Johannesburg International Airport.

The National Zoological Gardens of South Africa also known as the National Zoo of South Africa of Pretoria has also emerged as a popular tourist destination. It was established in the year 1899 and has since then worked for the conservation of endangered species like The White Rhino and Arabian Oryx. The Johannesburg travel tips are very handy while visiting this destination which also has an aquarium, a Reptile Park, primate, carnivore sections etc.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/travel-articles/cheap-flight-to-johannesburg-travel-from-london-to-johannesburg.htm - Article Side

Kevin Thomas - About Author:
Kevin thomas is a specialist content writer at a flights to johannesburg for business development. If you want to know about a johannesburg flights booking then you must visit a direct johannesburg flights.

Article Keywords:
Flights to Johannesburg, cheap flights to Johannesburg, direct flights to Johannesburg

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!