If you are planning to spend your holidays at a fun filled destination of Southeast Asia then Manila is the best place to go. Presenting a fine blend of traditional culture and modernity, Manila is the ultimate stopover to experience the charm of Filipino hospitality. With striking colonial structures, interesting museums, exotic shopping malls and a wide array of hotels and restaurants, the city attracts over a million tourists every year. To counter this increasing number of travellers round the year, various notable airlines provide cost-effective Manila flights offers. There are many cheap flights to Manila too that help even the budget-class travelers to visit this international destination in easy way.

Being considered as the most densely populated city in the world, most of tourists take Manila as a bustling, over-crowded and noisy capital city of Philippines. But despite of all these, the city still attracts and fascinates travellers. Thanks to its vibrancy, perfect combination of culture and urbanism and never ending spirit of fun. Like any other international destination, Manila too has markets, historic museums, religious places and numerous delicious dishes to taste that tourists will never forget. Manila Ocean Park, Rizal Park, the National Museum, National Library, the Planetarium, Orchidarium, San Agustin Museum and the University of Santo Tomas are some of the top attractions of the city. If you want to see some traces of past years then a visit to Fort Santiago, one of the oldest colonial era buildings in the country, is must. Increasing the charm of the city furthermore, shopping in Manila is one of the best leisure activities that everyone love to do. Malate and Ermita are two well-known areas of the city that are especially popular for shopping and exotic nightlife. Along with these, SM Mall of Asia, the second largest mall in Philippines, gives you a wide array of branded items to shop for along with several top-class restaurants to satisfy your hunger. If we talk about accommodation then also Manila city caters lodging needs of every visitor with ease. With plethora of hotels and guesthouses dotted all over the city, travellers face no difficulty in finding the right abode at suitable prices.

Whether you are visiting Manila for any business work or for vacations, the very first thing which you look out for is airfares. No one today wants to pay extra money when there are so many interesting Manila flights offers are available that promise guaranteed discounts. Many airlines and companies make such promos. So it is advisable to compare prices before making final decision. Cheap flights to Manila not only prove light to your budget but also give some extra amount to spend more on leisure during Manila sightseeing or shopping.
