Article published on January 21st 2012 | Travel

If you planning an India tour on a holiday, then one part you canâ€™t fancy to miss out is the rich South India tour. This part of India offers you the climate variance of hilly chilly mountains to the hot and humid beaches to the dense deciduous forests. You will feel the real flavour of Indian subcontinent and witness the rich cultural and religious heritage of India and glimpses of ancient Dravidian culture. In addition you will see some of the World heritage sites (Mahabalipuram) in Eastern beaches of India. If one is an enthusiastic about Wildlife, then there is plenty for you in south India, where you can be in the Periyar Wildlife sanctuary with the Indian elephants by the Periyar Lake.

There are numerous international airports in South India, which one can choose according to the place you want to start off your Wildlife tour India. If you plan to de-board by air at Bangalore then you are just at an ideal place to start your South India tour. Banglore, called the garden city of India offers a very pleasant climate throughout the year with not much of temperature variance. Mysore is city 125 kms away from Bangalore, often regarded as the cultural capital of Karnataka which has a number of historical and heritage buildings. Ranganathittu Bird sanctuary near Mysore is a place for migratory birds from Siberia, Australia and South America. Next is the Nagarhole national park, which is the largest stretch of protected forest in India, the development of forest is a dry scrub - moist deciduous with forest of rosewood, sandal, Oak, bamboo & teak. Enroute one must plan a pit stop at Srirangapatnam which is on a scenic island in Cauvery river, stretching 5 x 2 kms in size.

If this is not enough, then there is more in Nilgiris hills and Western ghats for you in Wildlife Tour India. Bandipur national park at foothill of Nilgiris and Western ghats has very interesting Flora and Fauna. Then you will be moving to Ooty and visit Botanical garden, Dottabeta Park and tea plantations, and of course donâ€™t miss out the blue hills. India tour will be incomplete without visiting the Godâ€™s own country â€œKeralaâ€•. Drive to Munnar with highest tea estates in the world at 1600 m There is more for Wildlife lovers as Eravikulam National Park, Kumarakoram Bird Sanctuary and Periyar Wildlife sanctuary. At last donâ€™t forget to rest in beautiful houseboats in Backwaters of Allapuzha.
