Article Side

Explore the Nature in Extreme with Kerala Tour Package

by Mahi Manral

Article published on March 20th 2012 | Travel

Popularly called â€˜Godâ€™s own Countryâ€™, Kerala is one of the most sought after tourist destination located at southern part of India, gathers large number of visitors from every part of the world all the year round. It is one such state of India, where one can explore innumerable enchanting colours of nature in different forms. Some of the finest rewards of nature that one can explore in Kerala include invigorating hill stations, palm-fringed beaches, picturesque backwaters, wildlife national parks, and ranges of floras and faunas. Whatever is your purpose of visiting, if you wish to spend your vacations in the lap of mother-nature while admiring several rewards of nature then, it would be finest place to get in? Literally means green paradise, this stunning state offers every thing to every one.

Along with its heavenly attractions, there are many other things that bring this place into limelight and enhance its popularity world-wide such as its mouth-watering cuisine, warm-friendly people, unique culture, various colourful celebrations and plush five star hotels and accommodations. Home to virgin natural attractions, it is one such state which resounds with colourful parties and celebrations all the year round. Among several big celebrations, national snake boat race is very popular in this state yearly conducted in the beloved memory of Indian former Prime Minister Pundit Jawaharlal Nehru. There are things that one can experience through Kerala tour package such as thrilling wildlife safari, backwater houseboat cruise, beach tour and many more.

Being a tropical state, Kerala is bestowed with innumerable refreshing hill stations majestically set on western-Ghats. Among several hill stations of this state, Munnar is one of the finest hill station fondly called â€˜Kashmir in southâ€™. Picturesque landscapes, lush green meadows, sprawling grasslands, vast tea gardens, mesmerizing waterfalls, meandering rivers and ranging of floras and faunas make Munnar one of the finest hill stations in the world. Due to several trekking trails and all time pleasant climatic conditions, it is also considered an ideal place for several trekking and fun-filled activities. Some of the stunning attractions that one can found around Munnar are Devikulam, Rajamalai, Eravikulam National Park, Echo-Point, and many others.

Well there are many other attractions of touristâ€™s interest but Kerala tour would not be completed unless you do not explore its scenic, tranquil backwaters which made up with the finest combination of brackish lagoons, lakes, inlets and several rivers. Kerala is bestowed with innumerable amazing backwater destinations but none can be explored without well-organized houseboats also known as Kettuvallms in traditional language. Some of essential features of houseboats include bath-attached rooms, lounge, deck, kitchenette, and etc.

There are so many backwater destinations in the green city Kerala, but no one is stunning like as Kumarakom, also mentioned in well-renowned novel â€˜the God of Small Thingsâ€™ written by booker prize winner Arundhati Roy. Apart from its scenic backwaters you can also find there stunning national bird sanctuaryâ€™ house to several colourful birds and marine animals.

Besides, there are many other things that one can experience during tour packages in Kerala, such as thrilling wildlife safari, beach tour, cultural trip and many more.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/travel-articles/explore-the-nature-in-extreme-with-kerala-tour-

Mahi Manral - About Author:
Mahi Manral is an eminent analyst and writer in Travel & Tours related topics. She has authored many books on a Kerala Honeymoon and a Kerala Honeymoon Packages. Find more information at a http://www.greenparadize.com/

Article Keywords:
Kerala Tour Package

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!