Article Side

Explore Three Important Cities of South India with South Golden Triangle Tour by Kanchan

Article published on February 21st 2012 | Travel

As well all know about the North India golden triangle circuit. It covers three important cities from northern region of the country as national capital Delhi, Agra and Taj Mahal. Travelers will come across numbers of world-famous historical monuments on their journey of these places. No doubt that it is the most wonderful option to explore the rich heritage of India. But besides north India golden triangle circuit, there are some other golden triangles are also available in the country. South India golden triangle is the most popular and worth visit of them. As usual it covers three important cities for southern region of the country as Mysore and Ooty. Now have a look at some popular tourist attractions of these cities.

Bangalore

Most obliviously, Bangalore would be the starting point of this circuit due to its good connectivity from other places. Bangalore is a well-known metropolitan of India. It is also the capital city of popular South India state of Karnataka. Due to its numbers of well managed parks, the city also known as â€œGarden City of Indiaâ€•. There are numbers of interesting tourist places to explore in and around Bangalore. Lal Bagh, Cubbon Park: Tipu Sultan Summer Palace, Bangalore Palace, Vidhana Soudha, Bangalore Museum, Venkatappa Art Gallery, St Patrick's Church and Bull Temple are the must watch places of the city.

Mysore

It is another important tourist destination of Karnataka. The city is famous for its rich culture and heritage. Beautiful Mysore Palace is the most prominent tourist attraction of the city. It is also regarded as the one of the most visited historical monuments in India. Dasara, an important Hindu festival is celebrated with great enthusiasm at this palace complex attract travelers across all over the world. Other important tourist attractions of Mysore are the Brindavan Gardens, Jaganmohan Palace, Chamundi Hills, St. Philomena's Church, Rail Museum and Mysore Zoo.

Ooty

Ooty is one of the most beautiful hill towns in South India. It is located amid the scenic Nilgiri Hills and also famed as the â€œQueen of Hill Stationsâ€•. Beautiful hill peaks, dense and ever green forest areas and pleasing climate make this hill town an ideal spot for relax vacations. Nilgiri Mountain Railway, the oldest mountain railway in India is the best way to explore pristine beauty of Ooty. An annual Tea and Tourism festival is also celebrated in Ooty receives large numbers of visitors. Government Rose Garden, Ooty Botanical Gardens, Ooty Lake, St. Stephen's Church and Tribal Museum are the must watch sites in its vicinity.

These are the major attractions of Golden Triangle Tour in South India. One can very easily explore these three destinations in a single trip. Several tour and travel services providers offer well planned golden triangle tours in southern region of the country according tourists demands. You can take their help to plan your vacations.

Article Source:

http://www.articleside.com/travel-articles/explore-three-important-cities-of-south-india-with-south-golden-triangle-tour.htm - Article Side

Kanchan - About Author:
Kanchan is an eminent analyst and writer in Travel & Tourism related topics. She has authored many books on tour guide for a Golden Triangle and a Golden Triangle Tours.

Article Keywords:
golden triangle tour, golden triangle, golden triangle tours

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!