Pachmarhi - the Queen of Satpura by Chanakya Bakshi

Article published on February 11th 2012 | Travel

Pachmarhi, a breathtakingly beautiful, hill station in the central state of Madhya Pradesh in India is one of the most sought after sylvan retreats for tourists. Situated at a height of 1000m, with the highest point of the Vindhyan Range, Dhupgarh standing tall at a height of 1350m, it makes an unforgettable destination for the lovers of nature. Numerous forts built pre and post annexation of the area to the British gives it a colonial look, reminiscent of a glorious past. It is a place which has seen battle, which has seen successions of power and which is still alive and ticking because of its amicable and relentless people.

Amidst all this natural and man-made beauty lies a beacon of professionalism, a provider of hospitality solutions to the hitch-hiker, passer-by and the foreign national alike â€“ Hotel Misty Meadows, one of the finest hotels in Pachmarhi. Hotel Misty Meadows Pachmarhi, with its spacious rooms and impeccable room service, gives a lasting offering of luxury at the best price. Having pioneered the hospitality industry in Pachmarhi for the last 2 decades, the management believes in making oneâ€™s stay a truly memorable experience.

Being one the best luxury hotels in Pachmarhi, it is well connected with the rest of the populace and conveyance is the least of the concerns of the tourist. The in-house restaurant provides authentic as well as gourmet delicacies for foodies. Apart from these tangible delights, there is something that distinguishes Hotel Pachmarhi from the rest of its peers â€“ the amazing scenic beauty that it offers to its dwellers.

All the lore and traditional stories connected with the place add to its charm â€“ a magic that weaves a dream that you would not like to wake up from. Some of the attractions are listed down below:

â€¢ Rajat Prapat (Big Fall)

â€¢ Bee Fall

â€¢ Dhoot Akhilesh

â€¢ Bada Mahadev

â€¢ Gupt Mahadev

â€¢ Chauragarh (Shiv Devotees come here in huge numbers during Mahashivratri) â€¢ Dhupgarh (The highest peak of the Satpuras and Madhya Pradesh)

â€¢ Handi Khoh (Deep Valley)

â€¢ Apsara Falls (Fairy Pool)

â€¢ Jatashankar

â€¢ Duchess Fall

â€¢ Pachmarhi hill

â€¢ Pansy Pool

â€¢ Waters meet

â€¢ Picadilly circus

â€¢ Patharchatta

â€¢ Crumps crag

Hotel Misty Meadows Pachmarhi provides guided tours to all of the aforementioned places and more for a highly budgeted package. For a tourist who is visiting Pachmarhi the first time, the hotel promises to offer the finest Pachmarhi accommodation, to live up to its reputation and make your stay the most delectable ever.

So, pack your bags and let the spirit of adventure grip you at its fullest and journey on!

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/travel-articles/pachmarhi-the-queen-of-satpura.htm - Article Side

Chanakya Bakshi - About Author:
Chanakya Bakhshi is the owner of one of the best hotels in a hotels in Pachmarhi. He is determined to develop ethical & responsible behaviour towards natural clean & green environment. He has a great knowledge of area as a close observant of flora & fauna. As a zealous trekker he has entered in deep dense corners of ravines & gorges of Satpura ranges.

Article Keywords:
pachmarhi hotels, hotel pachmarhi, hotels in pachmarhi, hotels at pachmarhi, pachmarhi accommodation

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!