Article Side

Puerto Rico Welcomes New Cruise Ship & All by Roger Nash

Article published on January 19th 2012 | Travel

Puerto Rico is a wonderful place to enjoy a great holiday. It is a very popular choice for holiday makers to get a great vacation. It is an island of many choices and wonders that never fail to attract thousands of visitors every year.

Cruise Ports

Many visitors choose to enter into Puerto Rico via the sea route. There are many cruise ports available in Puerto Rico with many cruise ships stopping by frequently.

Now and then, Puerto Rico welcomes a new cruise ship to its land. To date, it has enjoyed many local and foreign cruise ships. As one of the great revenue bringing entity, Puerto Rico welcomes new cruise ships at any time of the year to its ports.

There are sufficient and efficient facilities and amenities at the docks for these cruise ships; hence, making Puerto Rico a preferred disembarkation port.

Types of cruises

Since Puerto Rico welcomes new cruise ships to its shore with its excellent facilities and services, there are many cruise ships that sail along to its ports. These include the Carnival Cruise line, Holland America, Celebrity Cruise line, MSC, Norwegian and Princess Cruise lines.

The latest cruise ship that Puerto Rico welcomes is Celebrity Silhouette Cruise ship which would generate $3.6 million revenue for the island.

Statistics

The Celebrity Silhouette cruise ship just made its maiden dock in Puerto Rico recently with a possible 2,850 passengers on it. Puerto Rico welcomes new cruise ships in style which makes it a favorite docking port besides its tourism attraction that is widely renowned.

Puerto Rico has enjoyed over half a million cruise ship visitors in just the first quarter of the year which indicates a high preference for cruises to Puerto Rico.

Types of ports

There are many ports in Puerto Rico which helps Puerto Rico welcome cruise ships; they include San Juan port, Ponce or Port of the Americas and MayagÃ¼ez port. These are the bigger and more popular ports for Puerto Rico to welcome all cruise ships with San Juan port as the busiest Caribbean ocean terminal. Puerto Rico welcomes as many as 500 cruise ships through San Juan from 14 cruise lines annually with about a million visitors coming through.

San Juan port is more modern while Ponce port is more historical in set up. Port of the Americas gives a more traditional Puerto Rican flavor through its culture for those visitors who like to experience that more than modern offerings at San Juan.

MayagÃ¼ez Port gives the widest range of tours with many blue flag beaches around it that allows visitors to enjoy the famous water activities there.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/travel-articles/puerto-rico-welcomes-new-cruise-ship-all.htm - Article Side

Roger Nash - About Author:
Welcome to SeePuertoRico, If you want to travel in a cruises to Puerto Rico? Check out the latest a Puerto Rico vacations packages and also find lost more on our official website. And celebrate your a puerto rico weddings to make it most memorable moment of your life.

Article Keywords:
Puerto Rico vacations, cruises to Puerto Rico

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!