Rajasthan Tourism-The Best Itinerary for Rajasthan Tour by Rahul Ranjan

Article published on January 10th 2012 | Travel

The enchantment of vibrant Rajasthan lies in its rich cultural heritage, exotic safaris, smooth sand dunes, verdant forests and serene wilderness, rendering â€œRajasthan Tourismâ€• a nonpareil alternative Rightfully connoted as the â€œLand of the Kingsâ€•, the state incorporates several imperial forts, famous cities like the pink city of Jaipur, chromatic flora and fauna and a gamut of biosphere reserves.

Moreover, Rajasthan is not only known for its bravura architectural masterpieces and enthralling culture, but is also blessed with some of the supreme national parks and wildlife havens of India including the world-renowned Ranthambore National Park, Keoladeo Ghana National Park, Sariska National Park, and the Desert National Park, swarming with some of the rarest and endangered species of birds and animals. This fact entices thousands of wildlife enthusiasts and bird wooers from all around the world.

With millions of tourists visiting Rajasthan throughout the year, the â€œRajasthan Tourismâ€• sector has bloomed with leaps and bounds. The â€œRajasthan wildlife tourâ€• packages, proffered by â€œRajasthan Indiaâ€• India include several exotic travel stratagems, covering the most coveted wildlife havens like Ranthambore, Keoladeo and Sariska.

Some of the precise schemas included under the Rajasthan Wildlife Packages are:-

Bharatpur Bird Sanctuary tour-This journey sets off from Delhi airport and covers the monuments of National importance like Qutub minar, India gate, Red fort etc, before visiting Bharatpur (Keoladeo national park) and returning back to Delhi on the 5th day.

Bird watching tour-Starting from Delhi, the tour passes thru Chambal sanctuary (Agra), Bharatpur sanctuary, Ranthambore National park, Pangot-Sat Tal, Corbett National park and Sultanpur bird sanctuary, before returning to Delhi airport on the 16th day.

â€œRajasthan wildlife tourâ€•-Embarking at Delhi, this 12 day tour encompass Ranthambore national park (Jaipur) and Bharatpur â€“ Sariska National Park.

Ranthambore national park tour-This short 5 day excursion starts with the historical sites at Delhi and culminates with a visit to Ranthambore national park.

Sariska wildlife tour-Precisely akin to the Ranthambore National Park tour, the 5 day Sariska tour incorporates Sariska tiger sanctuary instead of Ranthambore.

Apart from the wildlife expeditions, â€œRajasthan Tourismâ€• facilitates a plethora of idyllic Rajasthan tour packages such as Rajasthan historic tour, Rajasthan Goa tour, Rajasthan cultural tour, Rajasthan forts and places tour, Rajasthan Haveli tour, Rajasthan heritage tour with Taj mahal and Ajanta Ellora caves tour amongst an array of further options. And with its online enquiry and booking portals, the Rajasthan tour India has become an ideal place to recce.
