Sydney the Iconic City of the World by Kevin Thomas

Article published on January 21st 2012 | Travel

Sydney has many sightseeing options on offer ranging from beautiful natural landscapes, majestic man made architectures, significant landmarks, busy harbours to picturesque beaches. There are many modes of transport available to visit these tourist destinations. But if the travelers of Flights to Sydney plan to experience the tourism potential of the city from close quarterâ€™s well planned walks through the city is also worth undertaking.The Writers Walk around the Curcular Quay is worth undertaking. The metal plaques engraved in this place pay tribute to the authors and writers who lived or visited Australia. Starting from the Sydney Opera House to the Museum of Contemporary Art on the other side of the harbor the travelers of cheap flights to Sydney can walk through the representations of writers like Arthur Conan Doyle, Charles Darwn, Miles Franklin, Barry Humphries, Clive James and Thomas Keneally.The Rock 'n' Roll Hall Walk of Fame 'n' Shame gives the visitors an insight into the Sydney rock'n'roll scene during the period of 1960's to 80â€™s. The walk takes you past significant locations pertaining to that period. Again the Colony Walk gives the travelers of Sydney flights an opportunity to visualize the colonial era of Australia and the lives of convicts, soldiers, whalers and sailors of those times.

The Commerce Walk takes the visitors past the significant and impressive commercial buildings of the city. The Central Business District area of Sydney is covered by this walk and information on significant buildings, architectural features and historical facts are provided on the way. Starting from the popular St James Station the walk ends at the historic Queen Victoria Building. Tourists booking the cheap tickets to Sydney can experience the financial and economic significance of the city through this walk.The Community Walk gives the tourists an insight into the influence of other cultures in the making of the society of the city. The walk starts from the Sydney Town Hall and passing along Chinatown and the Spanish Quarter ends at the Hyde Park. The walk covers the most important 20th century aboriginal sites in the heart of Sydney. On the other hand the Passion Walk takes the customers of flight to Sydney along the red light district of Kings Cross Station, The Cross, Potts Point and Elizabeth Bay. These areas are the entertainment hubs of the city and were very popular among artists, writers and musicians.Again the Sydney Heritage Walk takes one past through the twenty most significant historical sites of the city. Starting at Circular Quay and ending at the Sydney Town Hall the walk showcases the past heritage of the city. The Walk on Water covering 30 different waterways, fountains and historic sites is also very popular among the travelers using Sydney flights booking services.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/travel-articles/sydney-the-iconic-city-of-the-world.htm - Article Side

Kevin Thomas - About Author:
kevin thomas is a specialist content writer at a flights to sydney for business development. If you want to know about a sydney flights booking then you must visit flightstosydney.me.uk or call 0203 142 5160 for book your a cheap flights for sydney.

Article Keywords:
Flights to Sydney, cheap flights to Sydney, Sydney flights, Sydney flights booking

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!