Vale do Lobo is located in the Algarve region in Southern Portugal and is the longest established business of its kind in the region. The Vale do Lobo resort was founded in the 1960's and has remained one of the most desirable tourist destinations by those all around the world. The resort is most commonly known for its two popular golf courses, known as the Royal and the Ocean.

Over the past several decades, Vale do Lobo has grown tremendously, establishingitself as an incredibly desirable tourist destination. It is a fairly expensive, "up-scale" resort located in Portugal, most commonly populated by the very wealthy, celebrities and sports stars of sorts. Its excellent sports offerings (such as various tennis facilities and major golf course) make Vale do Lobo a common choice for those athletes that work within those fields.

What to Do

Vale do Lobo is a fantastic choice for anyone traveling to Portugal, no matter what accommodation you require. Whether you're looking for a quiet getaway or a nice family vacation, Vale do Lobo has something to offer everyone. Outside of their golf course, a number of spas and various retail spots are easily accessible. A number of fantastic bars restaurants are available to choose from too.

Where to Stay

While travelling, it's very desirable (and in some cases necessary) to feel as comfortable as possible. Villas are a fantastic way to simulate that "homely" experience, especially those interested in semi-longterm holidaying. Living situation worries add unnecessary stress to what should be an enjoyable and relaxing vacation. Vale Do Lobo offers a number of great choices for living quarters. While hotels are a common choice when visiting most parts of the world, the villas offered by the resort are a fantastic choice. Sometimes offering up to 6 bedrooms, villas are sure to make any family feel right at home.

Safety is a common concern of those staying in unfamiliar surroundings. Vale do Lobo realizes this, and works hard to maintain a safe environment for its guests that allows them to properly enjoy their holidays. The resort manages a well-trained security department which help preserve the non-threatening atmosphere Vale do Lobo is so well-known for.

What Goes On

Vale do Lobo often offers various celebrations and events (such as musical, theatrical or sporting events) and as mentioned previously, Vale do Lobo has worked hard to create an atmosphere that accommodates families of all sorts.Vale do Lobo has introduced various activities for children (known as the Kangaroo Club). Here children can play an assortment of indoor games; enjoy mini-golf, inflatable bouncy houses, a sand "pit" and much more! There is so much to do here that the whole family will have a great time.
