When you visit Corbett National Park thereâ€™s plenty more than the beautiful tigers and other animals to keep you engaged. There are several places of interest too. The Tapkeshwar temple is an ancient temple supposedly built by the Pandavas. Thereâ€™s Marchula at the tip of the National Park on the banks of the Ramganga River. The place is beautiful surrounded by majestic mountains and dense forests and popular for Mahaseer angling. In order to be able to enjoy all this one has to stay in a luxurious place such as the Corbett Hideaway, a home away from home.

The Corbett Hideaway is like a natural paradise. It is spread over a 10 acre area and concealed in mango grove thicket. The combination of mixed shrubbery of exotic lineage, flower laden branches and pebbled paths that lead to charming cottages lend a mystic aura to a vibrant resort.

Corbett Hideaway exudes warmth and infinite charm. The burnt red of the cottages, their sloping tiled roofs and cool stone floors with rugs and the block wood furniture all serve to provide comfort while you are in the midst of wilderness. The biodiversity of the place extends to the large number of mango trees and the jackfruit tree, the clusters of bamboo and bushes of hibiscus. There are rain flower, raat ki rani, azalea and plenty of guava trees that yield thrice in a year among the permanent residents of The Corbett Hideaway!

The external features of Corbett Hideaway consist of sprawling lawns and the poolside bar. One must also try out the unforgettable experience of massage therapy in the hands of trained masseurs in the verdant ambience of this exotic resort. There are 52 cottages classified in categories such as deluxe and superior while there are also recently renovated suites and family cottages. All have running hot and cold water and attached toilet.

Dining will always be a delightful experience for all guests at Corbett Hideaway with a wide variety of Continental, Indian and Kumaoni cuisines being served by the resident chef. There are an adequate number of restaurants and bars such as Gurney House, High Bank, Jimâ€™s Grill, Tusker Bar and Cigar Lounge to ensure that all comforts are provided to guests. There are adequate facilities for recreation within the resort and adventure activities outside such as river rafting, rock climbing and rappelling, abseiling and river crossing. Finally, there are special offers for guests during Christmas (23 Dec 11-29 Dec11), New Year (30 Dec 11-02 Jan12) and for two nights till 15 Apr 2012 as well.
