Visit Delhi, Agra and Jaipur on Golden Triangle Tour by Gaurav Kumar Verma

Article published on January 5th 2012 | Travel

Golden triangle is one of the most popular tour packages in India. Generally, it covers three representative cities of Indian culture and heritage from northern region. Namely, they are the national capital Delhi, Agra in Uttar Pradesh and Jaipur in Rajasthan. These destinations are also very well connected with each other and travelers can easily visit them in single trip. On a well planned expedition of these spots travelers will come across from several world-famous historical monuments and heritage sites of North India. These sites are the prime tourist attractions of golden triangle circuit. Besides forts and palaces, the tour offers much more to explore and enjoy. Now have a look at major highlights of this popular tourist circuit.

Mostly golden triangle of India starts from national capital Delhi due to its worldwide connectivity and excellent tourism facilities. Besides national capital, the city is also known as the heart of India. Blend of different cultures, historical monuments and religious shrines are the major attractions of this city. There are three world heritage sites are also located in surroundings. Namely, they are Red Fort, Humayun Tomb and Qutub Minar. The city is also popular for its luxury hotels, huge markets and new developed towering buildings. It is also some of the cities in India where Metro Train facilities are also available. One can use these trains to visit several popular tourist spots inside the city in less time and budget.

After Delhi, Agra is the next destination of this circuit. It is about 200 km away from Delhi. The worldwide famous heritage monument Taj Mahal is located in this city at the bank of holy Yamuna River. It was built by Mughal emperor Shan Jahan in memory of his beloved wife and famed as symbol of true love. As well, the grandeur of Taj also demolishes popularity of other worth visit sites of Agra. Besides Taj, City Fort, Itmad-ud-Daulah Tomb and China Tomb are some other interesting historical monuments in Agra. Fatehpur Sikri is also a worth visit town located in surroundings. Travelers can easily visit this town from Agra. It is mainly famous for historical structures and ruins. Buland Darwaza, the largest gateway around the world is the most popular tourist attraction of Fatehpur Sikri.

Jaipur is the third destination of golden triangle trip. It is the state capital of Rajasthan, the richest cultural state of India. Magnificent forts and palaces and seasonal cultural events are the prime attractions of this city. Amber Fort, Jaipur Palace, Hawa Mahal, Sheesh Mahal and Jaigarh Fort are the most popular historical monuments of Jaipur. The city is also famous for shopping of precious to semi-precious gems, jewelries, carpets, quilts, handicrafts and other traditional items. Maniharon Ka Rasta is the most popular open shopping street of this city.

Besides these, travelers can also extend their Golden Triangle India to visit several other tourist spots located close to this circuit. One can easily enjoy wildlife of Rajasthan, wonderful hill towns and popular pilgrimages on extended golden triangle India Tour Packages according to their budgets and vacations.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/travel-articles/visit-delhi-agra-and-jaipur-on-golden-triangle-tour.htm - Article Side

Gaurav Kumar Verma - About Author:
Gaurav writes for India travel and Tours related topics. He have own experienced in Travel. Recently write a articles about a Golden Triangle India.

Article Keywords:
India Tour Packages, Golden Triangle India

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!