Ladakh is a cold desert located in the Himalayaâ€™s rain shadow region. Enveloped by majestic mountains on all sides, this dry, snowy and windy place pours numerous adventure activities on your platter. Ladakh tour is not for the faint hearted but for those who relish that gush of adrenaline.

Trekking in Ladakh: Ladakh is highly popular as a trekking destination! Being a picturesque and panoramic hillside, it offers treks that are both challenging as well as intriguing. Ladakhâ€™s strategic location in the northernmost point of India makes it a trekkerâ€™s delight because it boasts of phenomenal height ranging from 9,000 feet to over 25,000 feet.

Frigid holiday destination: Tour to Ladakh serves as a frosty, frigid holiday destination to the lovers of mountains, snow-capped peaks and deep ravines & valleys. The climate doesnâ€™t usually go over 27 degrees Celsius in the summers which make for a pleasant weather. But those looking for spine-chilling weather must head here during winter when temperature may dip to even minus 20 degrees. Moreover, being at a very high altitude makes the place a nippy one since the atmosphere is thinner and the open skies make for fast-flowing wind.

Leh tour: Leh, the chief town of Ladakh, is a cultural hub with a mix of sightseeing spots, religious Buddhist monasteries and commercial opportunities. It attracts monks, traders and tourists from all parts of the globe and is quintessentially scenic and heart-rending. Leh tour is heavenly for the campers, trekkers, travelers and adventure-seekers.

Rafting and mountain biking: Ladakh tour comes with the heart-pumping rafting on the roaring Indus river. The gushing streams pave way for some terrific rafting that will allow you to have a whale of a time. Cycling and mountain biking is another fascinating sport that greets those who dare to take a tour to Ladakh. Cycling on the hilly lanes heading into the smaller villages with the great Himalaya standing guard from all sides can be an ethereal, unworldly experience.

Wildlife and jeep safari: Ladakh is noted for its wildlife and jeep safari. Slightly unexplored and mystical, Ladakh is the place where you can come face to face with a snow leopard and go hiking with friends.

Besides, there are a number of other attractive destinations including The Sham trekking route or the villages of Ulley, Tarutse, Basgo-Tunglung, Ang and Hemis-shukpachan. And a Leh tour shall throw open the doors to ancient traditions and a rich culture.
