Major attractions included in Singapore Tourism by Jennifer Aniston

Article published on May 24th 2012 | Travel Tips

Singapore Tourism has a lot to offer travelers all over the world. Below mentioned are the attractions that one can enjoy during Singapore tour packages:

Singapore Flyer

It is the largest observation wheel in the world made on a terminal building that is three story high. The diameter of the wheel is 150 meters and it is 165 meters high with a traveling speed of 0.21m per second. It is difficult to tell the right time to take its ride as it is an experience in itself both during day and night. One can see all beautiful places like Singapore River, Marina Bay, Raffles Place etc while taking the ride.

Marina Bay Sands Resort

One canâ€™t miss this $5.5 billion resort during Singapore tour packages. There is a fifty five story tall tower with a 200 meter high SkyPark in the shape of a boat. It gives an excellent view of the city other than good bars, restaurants, gardens, spas and is highly promoted by Singapore Tourism.

Raffles Hotel

Raffles hotel is a colonial style landmark in Singapore which a history that dates back to 1887. It has had prestigious guests as Michael Jackson, Queen Elizabeth II and Elizabeth Taylor. The hotel consists of one hundred and three suites and there are as many as eighteen restaurants and bar in the hotel itself along with forty boutiques.

Universal Studio

One of the biggest landmarks of Singapore Tourism is the Universal Studios which has twenty and more rides and themed zones like Hollywood, New York, Madagascar, Ancient Egypt, Lost World etc. There are two water themed parks also.

Chinatown

Singapore tour packages are incomplete without visiting Chinatown where you can shop for cheapest souvenirs and try the best authentic Chinese food. There are not only restaurants but also food vendors. You can also see the Thian Hock Keng Temple, Buddha Tooth Relic Temple etc.

Singapore Science Centre

It is a family activity that leas you enjoy one thousand interactive exhibits.

Singapore Night Safari

It is one of the major attractions of Singapore tour packages. One can have a look into the animal kingdom and see around one thousand animals from all over the world.

Buddha Tooth Relic Temple

It is a four story temple made in the year 2007. The Buddha statue here is of 27 foot. The architectural style of the temple is beautiful and is like the Buddhist Mandala and reminds of Tang dynasty.

With Singapore Tourism, you can also enjoy the Little India and the Singapore botanical garden.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/travel-tips-articles/major-attractions-included-in-singapore-tourism.htm - Article Side

Jennifer Aniston - About Author:

Author is an associate editor for a singapore tourism. Get all possible information about a singapore tour packages. We also provide information about Online Hotels Booking, Holiday Packages and Flights Booking in India.

Article Keywords:
singapore tourism, singapore tour packages

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!