Sao Paulo airports meeting global standards by Aron Howard

Article published on April 18th 2012 | Travel Tips

Sao Paulo is the biggest city in Brazil and is presently the largest city in the southern hemisphere. The city is the capital of the state of Sao Paulo, the most populated state in Brazil. This city is a leading metropolitan city and is famous for significant economic, cultural and political influence internationally. This city is also a home to a number of prominent and remarkable monuments, museums, and parks etc which are to be worth seen by the visitors in the city. The famous museums are Latin American Memorial and Portuguese Language Museum which is must see places in the city. This city is also a home to a number of momentous events in various fields like the Sao Paulo Fashion Week etc. The Stock exchange is also present in this city.

Some of the worldâ€™s tallest buildings are present in this city, and the North Tower of the UNSCOM is one of the most remarkable among these. There are a number of airlines which operate in the city, and the best airfares can be obtained according to your need. If one is planning for an economic trip, then cheap airfares can also be obtained as provided by a number of airlines.

Congonhos Airport is one of the three leading commercial airports serving the city of Sao Paulo, Brazil. This airport is ranked as the second in terms of the transported passengers and aircraft operations and is the ninth in terms of cargo handling in Brazil. The other main airport is the Guarulhos- Governador Andre Franco Montoro International Airport which was formerly called Cumbica Airport. In the year 2011, this airport id ranked first in terms of the transported passengers and aircraft operations. There are a number of airlines that operate from this airport and are connected to the various key cities of the world. Aeromaxico is an airline which connects this city to Mexico City. Air Canada is another major airline which connects the city with Toronto Pearson.

Flights to Sao Paulo can be taken from any major international airport from any part of the country. If someone is planning an economic trip, then there are a number of low cost airlines which provide the passengers cheap flights to Sao Paulo. The airports in the city has got excellent infrastructure and has all modern amenities which meet the global standards. There is also excellent shopping and dining destinations inside the airport fascinating a lot of international travelers who are in a mood of shopping. If one is planning an economic trip to the city, it is better planning a trip at a particular time of the year when the rush of tourists is a little low. Cheap tickets to Sao Paulo are available from a number of airlines.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/travel-tips-articles/sao-paulo-airports-meeting-global-standards.htm - Article Side

Aron Howard - About Author:
Aron Howard is an associate editor with Farebuzz.com. The website offers exclusive information related to a target_new first class flight and a target_new cheap flights to Sao Paulo.

Article Keywords:
beautiful city sao paulo, sao paulo holidays, travel to sao paulo

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!