Go With the Flow of Currency: To make your trip cost-effective, get maximum possible value from your money. And one of the ways to do so is to go with the flow of currency. We know that value of Singapore Dollar is more than Thailand Bhat. So plan your travelling in the direction of Singapore to Thailand. And once you complete holiday in Singapore, you must convert the left over dollars in to Thailand currency. This will avoid the wastage of money and bestow you more buying power in the country you visit.

Search for Discounted Deals for your Tour: Expenses on accommodation and transportation contribute a lot to the total cost of vacation. So, you would be better searching for discounted deals for these facilities. Internet is undeniably is the best source to search such deals. Today, a number of travel sites offer hotels deals at reasonable rates in both Singapore and Thailand. You can choose a suitable property to match your requirements and budget. However, you must book it well in advance to get it on discounts. Apart from that, it would also be a wise move to reserve a rental car if you plan a group tour. You can conduct an online research to get these deals at comparable prices. For a budget-friendly group tour, staying in a vacation rental or private home is less expensive alternate for stay.

Save on Meals: Saving on food can also make your travel budget-friendly. Try to get your meal at reasonable restaurants instead of hi-fi dining avenues. There is no dearth of such restaurants in both Thailand and Singapore, which provide quality stay at reasonable rates. Always buy fruits from markets. Quality of fruits remains good and the price is usually less in the markets. If youâ€™re staying in a rental home, prepare your meal by yourself.

Budget packages to Singapore/Thailand: To restrict your expenses and get a vacation that fits your budget, buying a budget holiday package to Singapore and Thailand is a good option. Under a budget holiday package to Singapore and Thailand, you will be offered low-costing facilities to enjoy your tour. Travel companies have their links with major airlines, accommodation properties and other travel-related services, so they can provide you cheap flights, reasonable stay and less expensive transportation in Singapore and Thailand. Buying a complete tour package, you can avoid the expenses of stay, meals and transportation, and can be free-from any hassle that could possibly arise during a holiday. While booking your travel deals, be they tour package Thailand or a complete package to Singapore-Thailand, you should make sure that youâ€™re dealing with a reliable source.
