Why to Opt for Vacation Rentals for Stay on Holidays? by Sofia Jennie

Article published on January 18th 2012 | Travel Tips

Vacation is perhaps the most alluring aspect of oneâ€™s living routine. One plans it year after year to get out of his physical and mental tiredness. But getting same things again and again, he can get bored even from a vacation. To make this routine (vacation) different, he change its elements like the destination and the place to stay.

After deciding the vacation destination, the next consideration is where to stay. People usually opt for hotel stay during their holidays, but some adventurous and experienced travelers choose to stay in vacation rentals. Surely, vacation rentals have emerged as a popular alternate to hotel rooms during a getaway. Many of the hotels promise the buyers for quality stay with facilities to match their standard, but, in many cases, when they check in the unit they find the situation totally different. Even the rooms of members in same group are not adjusting to each other. This is where vacationers may feel let down or dissatisfied, which usually messes up the whole trip. Other than that, hotel accommodation is a costly affair as well.

Thatâ€™s why private rentals are addressed to be the perfect option for vacationers, especially those in groups or with family. Vacation rentals are the private real estate properties, usually the condos and private homes, which are given on short lease to vacationers. Concept of vacation rentals has become quite popular, and these units are easily accessible at all popular holiday destinations worldwide. A unit usually contains 3 to 6 rooms, and is equipped with many modern facilities like separate bathrooms, dining room, full-functioning kitchen, air-conditioning and various entertainment options. Some recreational amenities like swimming pool, health club and indoor/outdoor sports can also be provided on demands. Since you have a well-operating kitchen, you can cook the meal as per your own preference and time schedule. It also means that you donâ€™t need to pay for meals in restaurants. Simply, staying in vacation rentals gives homely feel at a vacation.

Though this concept was discovered in the West, it has gained a huge popularity in the Eastern countries as well. Most of Indiaâ€™s popular holiday destinations like Goa, Kerala and Shimla feature such sorts of facilities to offer their visitors a comfortable stay at reasonable rate. So next time around when you plan a Goa trip or holiday in Kerala, you would be better to opt for a vacation rental instead of pricy hotel stay. To find a suitable deal for vacation rental, you can search over Internet. There are many travel portals offering database of vacation rentals at major holiday spots. You just need to consider your requirements and budget, and then take some time to conduct an online research to find a suitable property for your accommodation. With online mode of shopping, you can compare the reputable sites for their services and price. This would help you to get the deal at the competitive prices. However, youâ€™re highly suggested to book your vacation rental well ahead through a reliable travel agent.
