Variety is the spice of life. San Diego city offers a plethora of different events which are sure to impress you. In April, San Diego city is going to host a variety of events ranging from a horse show, an out of the world exhibition, a fair and lots more. Here are three events which you must include in your itinerary.

Annual Del Mar National Horse Show

Want to attend something which is thrilling and full of excitement? Why not drop in at the upcoming Del Mar National Horse Show. It is a much awaited and hugely popular horse show which is sure to keep you on your toes as you watch your favorite horses race to the final point. Set to take place from 21st April till 8th May, 2012, the Del Mar National Horse Show will run for total three weeks. Considered as one of the oldest and most prestigious equestrian competitions in the USA, the Del Mar National Horse Show is all about excitement and excellence. Make sure, you do not miss this pulse-racing event on your vacation to San Diego. During the three weeks, there will be a Western competition, Dressage Week, and the thrilling hunter/jumper classes that will conclude the show. It will be exciting to watch more than 1,500 horses of different breed racing trophies, titles and the prize money. Don't miss it!

Black Holes: Space Warps & Time Twists

Black Holes: Space Warps & Time Twists is one of a kind of exhibition. You must have heard of black holes in space where gravity is so enormously powerful that even light cannot escape. Black holes are one of the world' biggest mysteries till date and this exhibition is designed like a space mission to make visitors aware of this strange phenomenon. In fact, it can be said that Black Holes: Space Warps & Time Twists is somewhat out of the world sort of exhibition. It began in February and will go on till 29th April, 2012 at the Reuben H. Fleet Science Center in Balboa Park.

Encinitas Street Faire

Regarded as one of the largest street festivals in San Diego, Encinitas Street Faire is going to take place on 28th and 29th April, 2012 from 9am to 5pm in Old Encinitas. If you love the arts and shopping, you will find plenty of things to keep you happy and busy. There will be more than 400 vendors selling antiques, clothing items and souvenirs. You can check out arts and crafts, enjoy delicious food, LIVE music, have a good time at Karl Strauss Brewery beer garden and lots more. There will be children' rides too to keep the kids occupied. Encinitas Street Faire has a very relaxed atmosphere. You can bring in your kids, push your kids strollers, check out different booths and have a good time with your friends and family.

The success of a vacation depends a great deal on hotels as well. Try to find a San Diego hotel from where you can commute to different locations easily. The best part of a centrally located hotel in San Diego is that you will save considerable amount of time and money while traveling to different attractions. So choose a good San Diego accommodation which is ideally located and offers good services at affordable prices.
