Article Side

An overview of the top salon brands by Shaz Memon

Article published on April 11th 2012 | Business

When we talk about salon brands the first and foremost thing that comes to our mind is professional care and high performance. When you run a salon business the satisfaction of your clients is your first priority and professional care using the popular salon brands is the ultimate way to make your customers happy. Some Beauty salons are meant for the entire care treatment while some are meant for specific aspects like nail care or hair care. For all kinds of salons the salon supplies, equipments and beauticians are most important. Salon supplies invariably include various salon brands and these banded products are definitely preferred over others for their exceptionally good quality and high performance level. The top brands which are extensively used in salons are Babyliss, Cuccio, IBD, NSI and Star nails. Be it hair care, message, manicure and pedicure or any other beauty care products, the salon brands are available for all.

A few things to know about various salon brands:

Among the top brands in the market widely used in salon is BaByliss. This is a leading manufacturer of various electrical appliances for personal care. The salon products from BaByliss include hairdryers, tongs, straighteners, crimpers, hair clippers, trimmers, hair removal products for women and beauty appliances. To the professionals all over the world, beauty products from BaByliss are preferred choice for the perfect salon finish. These high-performance products are also designed to use at home so that one can achieve that excellent finish at home too. BaByliss products make use of the latest technology and tested thoroughly to give superb results.

When talking about salon brands Cuccio would definitely demand a mention. Known as the largest nail and beauty product manufacturer, Cuccio products including the hand and nail treatment products are used in the top salons and spas across the world. The professional beauty products from this company excel in innovative high quality and add a great value in the beauty industry.

A premier name in salon brands IBD is known for innovative and excellent professional salon products. The complete range of nail care products from IBD has helped the nail professionals to offer better and improved service.

NSI is a specialist name in the field of professional nail care products, gel nails; acrylic nails, and nails art. The high quality products from NSI always stand for high performance and reliability.

Among the salon brands Star nails is a prominent name manufacturing range of beauty products which are meant for professional care. The products of Star Nails are manufactured using state-of-the-art technology and favoured for excellent performance.

Salon brands are an integral part of salon system. Among the wide range of salon products and equipments it might be difficult to choose the right ones. For the high performance products and equipments at reasonable price making a good research of various branded products is necessary.

The Nail Company, the leading salon suppliers of specialised beauty products and equipments has a complete collection of professional beauty products of prominent salon brands like Babyliss, Cuccio, IBD, NSI and Star nails. The high quality professional beauty care products from the Nail Company are preferred by salon owners, nail technicians, beauty therapists, manicurists, beauty therapy students and nail technicians all over the world for excellent quality products of the top brands at the reasonable price.

Please visit our site for more information: http://www.thenailcompany.co.uk

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/business-articles/an-overview-of-the-top-salon-brands.htm - Article Side

Shaz Memon - About Author:
Maria Stone is a well known cosmetologist who specialises in treating the skin, hair, and nails. This reputed beauty specialist offers excellent suggestions regarding skincare options, hairstyles, and the best colours and proper application of cosmetics. She is sharing her knowledge on the various a salon brands with us.

Article Keywords:
salon brands, Salon System, Babyliss, Cuccio, IBD, NSI, Star nails

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!