Article published on February 14th 2012 | Business

Are you dreaming of beautiful handmade area rugs to accent your dÃ©cor? Want to add an expensive rug to reflect your style? Well, live your fairytale dreams by owning your very own hand designed rug. Thatâ€™s right, get fabulous handmade area rugs for incredibly low cost online and add a priceless rug to your collection.

Variety in Handmade Area Rugs

The size and shape of handmade area rugs is mainly dictated by your personal preference. It is also determined by where you want to place your treasured rug. Usually a single rug is preferred for medium /small sized room and two small ones for a huge room. If you choose a single rug for a particular room, make sure that it covers at least one thirds of the floor area. Normally, rectangular rugs are suitable for larger rooms whereas the runner rugs are used to cover hallways. Round area rugs are apt for containing coffee tables while square rugs are suited for square shaped rooms. Whatever you choose, ensure that you pick treasured carpets only from reputed, certified dealers.

Before Buying

When you want to buy handmade area rugs, begin the buying process at home. That's right, just before prancing off to the store; get into the â€˜preparation phaseâ€™ of carpet buying. This prevents you from getting side tracked so that you donâ€™t end up buying a rug that would seem inappropriate in the long run. You can begin the â€˜preparation phaseâ€™ by visualizing an exquisite handmade area rug in your room. Be sure to take measurements along the length of the floor so that you will know what to look for at the store. After this, get a feel of the different textures and carpet colors. You can use a professional text to understand the differences seen in the intricate rug patterns of different places such as Istanbul, Kashmir etc. Once you decide on the rug style, material, design and color you are sufficiently geared up to buy handmade area rugs.
