Nowadays there is a tight connection in the world. The whole wide world has been turned into a global village due to globalisation. The entire world can be affected even if some small incident takes place in the remotest corner of the world. Therefore, the world should have an awareness of the current news. For being updated with today news, proper time is required for watching news or reading the newspaper. This is because the lifestyle led by people is highly demanding. Due to this busy lifestyle, people are not getting the required time for watching news. In these situations, news headlines are very convenient and important. It is not necessary to read the entire news. Only if snippets are read, it is quite enough.

The choices of people are different. Some have interest in politics news while some give preference to crime news. Entertainment news is enjoyed by some people. Various kinds of news articles are found in television news channels and newspapers. These segments are specially designed for suiting the interest of the viewers and readers. There is an ideal combination of soft news and hard news in the television news channels and newspapers. Hard news refers to serious news and it should be viewed seriously. Soft news is news which is read or viewed for mere entertainment. This is mainly done for striking a balance between entertainment and serious quotient. Earlier, news could be gained only from limited options.

There were long articles in the newspapers and detailed news was present. On the radio and television, there was limitation of time. If news is missed, one has to wait for few more hours. However, nowadays there are no limitations. Humans are offered with various inventions by technology. Thus, news can be obtained with great ease. There are various applications on mobile phones that provide facilitation of latest news or updates. The whole news articles need not be read. There are news headlines through which whole incidents are conveyed in short. Technology has provided people with the internet and the computer. This is one source from where news can be obtained. Sometimes, it can be obtained with a click of mouse comfortably sitting at home. Today news can be accessed with ease from various sources. There is flexibility of these sources and things that are needed can be offered easily. Thus, the whole human race is surely helped a lot due to technology.
