Who is not a fashion trendy person? Difficult to find one, as the uprising effect of media has transformed even the dullest of personal into a fashion trendy human. Fashion is everywhere. Be it garments or Designer glasses shoes or, everywhere there is a style statement to highlight. However, at the end of day, what matters is how well and confidently you are able to carry yourself. If you are confident in your approach, then whatever style statement you follow will become a trendsetter for the surrounding people.

Prescription glasses used to create a negative impression on the looks of people some years ago. However, the scenario has changed drastically with the fall of new millennium. These days, wearing designer spectacles is considered a fashion statement. Some of the notable manufacturers like Bausch & Lomb, Carl Zeiss, Ray Ban, Emporia Armani, Gucci, Versace, Calvin Klein, and Johnson have been successful in producing the trendiest frames. Contact lenses are also quite popular these days. It eliminates the frame factor from catching up on the face. Rather, the lens is placed within the cornea and can be removed without much of a problem.

Whether you are looking for prescription glasses or contact lens, the first priority need to be to consult an expert ophthalmologist. If you want to wear lens or glasses for correct visioning, then it is necessary to get the eyesight tested from a suitable eye clinic. Only after proper testing, the ophthalmologist can recommend the accurate power that the viewing glass or lens will contain.

If you want to wear lens/glass for fashion purpose, then there is no necessity for such eye testing. There are plenty of powerless glass and lens available at the market. However, it is recommended to purchase them from reputed manufacturers, as the quality will be genuine.
