Parents often bribe or â€˜rewardâ€™ kids to maintain good behavior. But is it good to do so? No it isnâ€™t doesnâ€™t take much time for children to understand that they will get something for behaving properly and this is when they start exploiting opportunities like visiting someone, going to party, shopping mart. Whenever they go out, they will misbehave because they are aware that daddy or mummy will give them something. There demand will go on increasing with their age.

Parents should avoid doing so and instead of offering candies and toys, tell your kid that if heâ€™ll be a good boy, they may go out to his favorite place or may play his favorite game. Surprise him every time by offering something new which has moral value. By doing this and appreciating your childâ€™s behavior and praise him for that every time. This will have a positive effect on childâ€™s mentality and he will behave properly for getting your praise and that little surprise.Children learn good behavior mostly at school and home. It is not just the duty of parents but teachers as well. MBS International School, situated in Dwarka is an English medium co-educational school, offering classes from nursery to class seven.
