Driving Experience Days make the ideal present for your loved one

by Mary Porter

Article published on June 16th 2012 | Business

Sometimes knowing what to buy someone for their birthday is tricky. Perhaps theyâ€™ve got everything they need or maybe they have very specific or expensive tastes? One way of getting round this problems is to treat them to an experience day. Driving experience days are particular popular, especially among men.

Driving experience days are a great way to test-drive some of the worldâ€™s most expensive and powerful cars without having to buy them. Experiencing luxury and speed like never before, driving experience days let you loose on a race track and really stretch the carâ€™s abilities. Driving experience days really are the ideal present for all petrol heads and car lovers.

When booking driving experience days, youâ€™ll get the chance to choose from a selection of super cars. From fast Ferraris to powerful Porches, choosing the right car can be a hard pick for many. Lotus, Audi, Aston Martin and Lamborghini driving experience days are also extremely popular. You can also choose a racing car or an off road 4 x 4 for driving experience days. Whatever car you choose, driving experience days will make sure your loved one has the ride of their life. And if youâ€™re really stuck, why not treat them to vouchers for Driving experience days and let them choose their own vehicle of choice?

Driving experience days will begin with a full debriefing session. Youâ€™ll be given full instructions on how to operate the car...and importantly, how to get the most out of the car! Health and safety will be covered and youâ€™ll be given all the equipment you need to enjoy your day. Then youâ€™re off! Speeding round a race track, driving experience days are a fantastic adrenaline rush and a chance to drive a car you otherwise may never get a chance to. Videos and photographs from driving experience days are also available, catching your special experience on film for all to see.

Thruxtonracing.co.uk offer first class driving experience days. They are the only company to offer a Ferrari driving experience in the new Ferrari 458 Italia model. Not only that, but Fifth Gear presenter Tiff Needell attends 90% of the driving experience days and for a small extra charge you can enjoy a thrill packed sideways drive with him in a BMW M3. Their 2.4 mile racetrack has no speed limit and their fleet of cars is hard to beat, making Thruxtonracing.co.uk the right choice for your experience day.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/business-articles/driving-experience-days-make-the-ideal-present-for-your-loved-one.htm - Article Side

Mary Porter - About Author:
a Driving Experience Days available to buy from thruxtonracing.co.uk. Our Ferrari Driving Experience is a once in a lifetime activity and very exitingâ€“ Visit us today for more information!

Article Keywords:
Driving experience days, Ferrari Driving Experience

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!