Enjoy the Scenic Surroundings While You Stay at the Hotels in Cumbria by Elissa Joyce

Article published on January 13th 2012 | Business

This beautiful holiday area boasts of a number of guest houses and the hotels in Cumbria offer the best deal for their customers. The scenic surroundings of this place offer a breath-taking view and if you are out on a holiday, you couldnâ€™t ask for more. You can explore the surroundings and have a refreshing and relaxing time here. The warmth and hospitality offered is exceptional and there are many who keep coming back to enjoy these privileges all over again. Whether it is the mountain tops or the beautiful lakes, you will want to experience more and more and stay close to nature throughout your stay here.

When you stay at any of the hotels in Cumbria, you can indulge in a wide range of activities. You can try your hand at rowing on the lakes, walk through the fells, or pay a visit to the Pencil Museum. There are a number of haunts that are worth a visit such as the haunts of Beatrix Potter and Wordsworth. If you wish to relax, you could choose hotels that have spas, indoor pools, gyms, fitness centre, sauna etc.

There are a number of pet-friendly hotels in Cumbria too. Since these hotels are situated in the most picturesque and scenic locations with vast expanses of land, pet owners are encouraged to bring in their pets and spend some quality time here. So, if you are planning on a holiday with your family, you no longer have to worry about leaving your pet behind. The charges may vary, but it could anything in the range of Â£5-Â£10 per night, in order to cover the charges for cleaning and maintenance of the place. Most of these places allow dogs only in the guest bedrooms, but not in the public rooms. Since there are fabulous walks and woodland gardens, you can take a leisurely walk with your pet and explore the sights and sounds along with your pet.

Some of the pet-friendly hotels in Cumbria include The Kilfinan Hotel, Stonefield Castle Hotel, Conistan hotel, Blackaddie house, Flodigarry, Viewfield House, Four Seasons Hotel, Boath house, Pool House, Forss House, etc. Since you have a number of pet-friendly hotels, you can remain stress free as you can bring your pet along and spend some quality time together.

The other hotels in Cumbria include Lovelady Shield, Appleby Manor, The Pheasant, Armathwaite Hall, etc. Some of the finest hotels include Lyzzick Hall Hotel that is complete with a pool, spa, and other leisure activities. Westmorland Hotel, Ennerdale Country House Hotel, Swinside Lodge, Sharrow Bay, Rothay Manor, Holbeck Ghyll, Lindeth Howe, Brown Horse Inn, Linthwaite House, Gilpin Hotel & Lake house, Aynsome Manor, etc. Each of these places offer travellers and holiday makers a unique experience and you will certainly want to come back for more. Whether you are on a holiday with your family, friends, or on a sightseeing trip, you will certainly have a lot of fond memories to take back with you. Make your booking well in advance especially during the holiday season.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/business-articles/enjoy-the-scenic-surroundings-while-you-stay-at-the-hotels-in-cumbria.htm - Article Side

Elissa Joyce - About Author:
Want to book a room in one of the best a hotels in Cumbria? Visit our website signpost.co.uk to learn more about avail the best at affordable prices.

Article Keywords:
hotels in cumbria, cumbria, cumbria hotels

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!