Panchkula is the name of a district in Haryana. Panchkula has proximity to Himachal Pradesh, Punjab and Union Territory of Chandigarh and also Kurukshetra district. Kalka town, Morni Hills, Mansa Devi Temple and Pinjore Complex are in Panchkula and all these places are of tourist attraction. The city of Chandigarh is only 15km away from Panchkula. Panchkula is adequately connected to Chandigarh by air, rail and road.

The total area of Panchkula is about 900 sq km and the population is around 5.5 lacs. Being a fast developing place, people migrate to Panchkula from other parts of Haryana as well as from Chandigarh. Consequently real-estate business is flourishing in Panchkula. The property developers and real-estate agents are busy with responding to enquiries from buyers and sellers of residential as well as commercial properties. Flats at Panchkula are of very high demand and many leading builders construct flats here in the latest designs and with state-of-the-art-facilities. 1, 2, 3 and 4 BHK flats, independent houses, commercial shops and office spaces are available for sale in Panchkula.

The calm and healthy surroundings around Chandigarh also have resulted in hectic real-estate activities. The realtors concentrate their activity in places in and around Chandigarh like Mohali, Zirkapur, Derabassi, Kharar and Panchkula. Chandigarh has been identified as an ideal place for property selling and buying. Flats at Chandigarh include condominiums and duplexes of premium and luxury grades. Apartments of varying sizes are available for sale. Flats at Chandigarh attract buyers since they are situated in the middle of picturesque landscapes on river banks which also have many big and small hills and forests.

While numerous apartments and houses are already handed over to the buyers, builders and developers have launched many mega projects in and around Chandigarh. According to the reputed construction companies which are engaged in developing Flats at Panchkula and residential as well as commercial buildings in Chandigarh, they have undertaken the mission to provide quality homes to the general public at affordable prices. More and more projects for apartments, houses and commercial complexes are being launched here in view of the increasing demand for domestic and commercial accommodation. The builders are jubilant with massive response they receive from the public.

The builders and architects here give special attention to the aesthetic beauty, safety of structure and beauty of furnishing of the condominiums and independent houses they construct. Many urban families from Haryana and Punjab attain fulfillment of their dreams to own a beautiful and comfortable apartment by migrating to Chandigarh and Panchkula
