Give your Headboard the funk factor by James Blee

Article published on June 18th 2012 | Business

Wondering how you can give your bedroom a touch of the wow factor without spending too much money? Have you thought about changing the headboard with a new feature thatâ€™ll breathe new life into an old bedroom setting? This is one relatively inexpensive way to create a focal feature within your home. Of course, weâ€™re not talking about any old Headboard here; weâ€™re referring to a produ that has been custom made on your behalf.

A designer Headboard could be just what your bedroom is crying out for at the moment, just imagine how gorgeous the room would look with a fabulous feature at the head of your bed. Tailor made headboards are fast becoming the must-have accessory in bedrooms, a trendy Headboard oozes style and grace. Youâ€™d certainly give your room a funky new feature if you ordered a custom made Headboard for your home.

How much fun can you have with a headboard?

Design your own headboards and youâ€™ll have tons of fun. For starters you can choose the individual shape and style of the Headboard and there are loads of options to pick. It doesnâ€™t matter if you have a single, double or super king size bed the Headboard is made to measure.

Next, think about the height of the Headboard because options are available in standard sizes or you can increase the height to protrude an extra 31cm if you prefer. Now that really does give the Headboard plenty of presence, itâ€™ll stand up loud and proud in your bedroom with its eye catching allure.

Finally choose the fabric for the Headboard and pick suede, silk, velvet or cotton or opt for hotel boutique fabrics if you like. Itâ€™s a real pleasure to hand pick all the different aspects of the Headboard and once they all come together you have your very own unique item.

Harmonise the headboard

Consider the colour scheme of your bedroom. No doubt youâ€™ll want the new Headboard to match the decor. Thatâ€™s not a problem, headboards can mix and match with wallpaper, painted walls and they can even complement cushions and bed runners in the room.

A designer Headboard looks gorgeous matched to soft furnishings within the room so try out a few samples beforehand. Create a dream bedroom scheme using a compliment of colours and tie everything in with the shade of the Headboard. It doesnâ€™t cost anywhere near as you might imagine to custom make a Headboard and if you give it the funk factor itâ€™ll look fabulous in your new boudoir.
