If you are looking for the ultimate escape that allows you to slow down the frenetic pace of life, then travelling along beautiful and serene waterways could be for you. Houseboat hire on the murray river could be the answer to all your holiday problems. Imagine opting out of the rat race for a week or a fortnight and travelling along a river where there is hardly any other traffic. You can moor the houseboat whenever and where ever you feel like it. You can alight at any of the many small towns along the river and explore them before going back to your home on the water.

There is no need to worry about booking any accommodation when you take a holiday with murray bridge houseboats; you take your accommodation with you. Houseboats can carry quite a number of people so getting a family group or your friends together for a holiday on a houseboat is a brilliant idea.

Houseboats on the murray river are very safe since there are no waves to speak of in a river, unlike the ocean where conditions may get rough due to prevailing weather conditions. You can enjoy the spectacular scenery from a houseboat, go bird-watching, take wonderful photographs and call in to any port to visit such things as wildlife parks, other tourist facilities or even play a round or two on the local golf course.

There is no need to worry about whether you can drive, steer or pilot a houseboat. All you need is a driverâ€™s licence and the staff will put you through all you need to know before you leave the home base. Safety regulations must be adhered to but these are quite easy to remember and do.

Houseboat hire gives the whole family quality time together in a way that is rarely possible on other kinds of holidays. So opt out of the rat race today and enjoy the slower pace of a houseboat holiday.
