Donâ€™t you dream of driving a Porsche or McLaren through those long, beautiful highways? Obviously, you do. It is not only you, but also every individual dream at some stage of his/her life (notably, during the younger days). However, the question is: how many achieve success in making the dream a reality? Very few! And when you are a proud owner of Porsche or McLaren vehicle, then there comes some additional responsibility also. It is necessary to take proper care of the vehicle.

Driving a car through those highways is quite fun, isnâ€™t it? However, you ought to be careful while driving or else some severe accident may take place. Remember that Motoring Offences will lead to severe punishment including jail sentence. Fine and penalties are quite common but these days, the traffic rules are quite strict within the United Kingdom. A little bit of reckless driving approach will result in serious punishable offences.

There are different lanes in highways through which you can drive. However, each lane features for a particular speed limit. If you exceed the limit, then you are breaking the law. There are speed indicators available within the highways. Once the speed limit exceeds, it will signal. And your car will be stopped by the traffic sergeant. Heavy fines will be imposed for such traffic offences.

Beware of the penalty points. If the penalty points reach 12 or more within a period of 3 years, you will face with driving ban. Yes, your driving license will be banned for a period of minimum six months. During this period, you will not be eligible to drive any vehicle legally. However, if you approach the illegal way, then do it at your own risk. Driving without license is one of the most serious traffic offences and can lead to imprisonment for a period up to 2 years!
