How to Decorate Your Italian Kitchen by Julia Roger

Article published on March 12th 2012 | Business

One of the best ways to get that old world charm in your kitchen is to decorate it with the custom Italian kitchen designs. Tuscan style is one of the most popular kitchens Melbourne styles, which use architectural accents and natural material for providing a time worn look to your kitchen. You are not required to buy any expensive craft pieces or expensive decorative for your kitchen. We are going to discuss some of the most important tips, which will help you in achieving great look for your Italian kitchen.

Color of Kitchen: Look out for colors that resemble Tuscan landscape and choose among rich colors like earth stones, tones resembling sea, rich gold look and similar designs. Majolica pottery can add a unique touch to your kitchen and you can choose the color of walls accordingly. Make sure to use as many natural materials as possible including granite, slate, terracotta, and stones for your countertop decoration.

Accessories for your kitchen: You can easily find accessories for your Italian kitchen. Look out for antiques in your local stores, which may suit your Kitchens Melbourne. Some of the best things to look out for include old pitchers or bowls and wooden balls, which have been painted or glazed uniquely. It would be great if you can buy a set of Majolica pottery for your kitchen. You can get some decorative jars for your kitchen and use ropes of garlic or pepper for giving a more detailed look to your kitchen.

Lighting for Kitchen: Italian kitchen should resemble an age-old look and hence choose your lighting accordingly. Look out for antique piece of lighting that is made up of wrought iron and some recessed lighting for a real Italian look. Avoid any lighting that gives shiny look and go ahead with lights having metal finishing
