--With eleven years of experience as one of the premier air conditioning, heating and ventilation, and refrigeration retailers in the East Midlands, Batecool is proud to have developed a reputation for providing an attentive customer-centric service. This is combined with a high-quality product range where durability and efficiency are evident throughout and a number of maintenance and product accreditations that surely demonstrate the superiority of our service.

The quality of our Air Conditioning, and indeed the broad spectrum of services that we provide, is evident in the diverse client based that we hold. Our business has grown from initially providing commercial refrigeration solutions, and today we can fulfil all manner of air conditioning and HVAC requirements with precision.

In addition to the supply of air conditioning units, and indeed all manner of HVAC system, here at Batecool we have the technical expertise and experience to carry out national ventilation. Indeed all manner of HVAC solutions, bespoke design services for all HVAC systems, and even maintenance and repair service for air conditioning and HVAC systems can be completed by our skilled team of technicians.

The business itself holds accreditations with HVCA, the heating and ventilating contractors association and REFCOM. All of our air conditioning, heating, refrigeration and ventilation engineers are ACRIB registered, and the business itself is both Gas Safe and Trust Mark Registered.

The diverse air conditioning systems that we offer include variant refrigerant volume solutions, industrial applications, water chillers and cellar coolers. The refrigerant volume solutions are similar to split systems but use multiple indoor and outdoor units on a larger scale, whereas water chillers are used in cooling applications for larger air conditioning applications. Our air conditioning services also include the installation, maintenance and repair of cellar coolers and a range of industrial cooling applications.
