Imagine a situation where you do not have to attend office daily and even never. Some people might think it to be an insane idea. But what if you have freedom to work from your home and you can earn your living from that. Work from home has given this opportunity to work and earn without having to attend long and boring office hours. While there are a lot of attractive advantages of work from home, there are some negative aspects of such jobs as well. Listed are some of the many advantages of work from home.

Advantages of work from home jobs

Time and lots of time: When you do not have to attend office, you save considerable time that goes wasted in commuting to and from the office to your home. You can invest that time in doing more work and earn more money right from home. There is no compulsion on working hours. You can work whenever you want to and for as long as you wish.

Freedom: Daily office steals a lot of fun from your life. You cannot go out with friends and family members during office hours. When you start working from home, you have freedom to enjoy life. You can prioritize things to do and still manage to work at night.

Come closer to your family: You miss small yet important moments when you are in office like everybody would like to see as their kid grows. You also would like to live every moment of that phase. While working at home you can take care of your kids, spend time with your beloved and play with your pet. You can take your family on a picnic whenever they want to. This will bring you closer to your family and friends.

Save money: You can save a considerable amount of money that you spend in travelling while going to and coming back from your office.

Save the environment: The world is suffering badly due to the pollution problem. You can cut on the emissions made by your vehicle when you travel to your office daily.

Develop your hobby: You can choose a work that involves your interest and hobby. In this way you can work and earn without getting bored.

Disadvantages of work from home

Lack of focus: When you go to office daily, you know what targets you want to achieve in time to come. Being at home you might not be able to focus on your work as there are a number of distractions.

Lack of discipline in life: Some people do not take work from home seriously and tend to postpone the work for other activities. An office going person has to get up early and be ready for office daily. When you start working from home there are chances of you being lazy and unorganized.

Working from home needs dedication: You can also choose it as an extra source of income. There are a number of websites like Work-from-home.com which provide good work from home offers.
