

Article Side

Kam Habibi DC PA Has Established Many Offices in Florida by John Smith

Article published on March 21st 2012 | Business

Kam Habibi is a licensed Chiropractic physician based in Florida. Presently, he is serving Kam Habibi DC PA and is a reputable member of the Florida Chiropractic Association. The FCA focuses on the protection and welfare of its members, irrespective of philosophy and education of public regarding chiropractic profession. It supports the statutory authority of individual Chiropractic practitioners to analyze, examine or diagnose the diseases through methods taught by accredited chiropractic colleges. It is not affiliated with any national or state organization. Every year, FCA provides several education programs designed to the needs of membership. It also offers programs for Chiropractic assistant and fulfills ACRRT (X-Ray tech) recertification requirements.

Kam Habibi graduated from Life University and attended Edison College for his Associate of Arts degree. He also passed three primary tests (Part I, Part II & Part III) conducted by the National Board of Chiropractic Examiners. Thereafter, he completed his post-graduate studies in Diagnostic Testing including MRI and X-rays on several health problems such as Scoliosis, Disc Herniation, Spondylosis, Spondylolisthesis, Whiplash, Neurodegenerative disorders, Migraine, Benign Tumors of the spine, Benign tumors of the upper and lower extremities, Malignant tumors of the spine, and Malignant tumors of the upper and lower extremities.

After completing his studies, Kam Habibi started working with K&D Family Chiropractic, Birmingham, Ala, and also served as Spokes Person for the State of Alabama Department of Public Health. In 1998, he was granted a license in the State of Florida as Chiropractic Physician. He also received certification in Manipulation under Anesthesia in 2008. His other professional experience includes teaching graduate courses to nursing students in the University of Alabama, Birmingham from 1996 to 1997. Moreover, he also established Lyngate I Medical Development, LLC in 2006.

Kam Habibi is a dedicated philanthropist who contributes to local churches in Broward Country. He also donates money to local elementary and high school chiropractic physician. Kam has many hobbies and interests, such as hiking, swimming and reading. He also loves to play basketball during his free time. Aside from that, he is a fitness enthusiast who works out regularly to stay fit.

Article Source:

<http://www.articleside.com/business-articles/kam-habibi-dc-pa-has-established-many-offices-in-florida.htm> - Article Side

John Smith - About Author:

Article Keywords:

Kam Habibi