

Article published on January 5th 2012 | Business

Who is a notary public? A notary public is an officer constituted by law to perform certain functions or notarial acts. Those acts include being a fair witness between two parties in the case of documentation, helping to defer fraud and promoting integrity of documents.

The process of becoming a notary public is different for different states. Every notary requires certain notary supplies which may range from notary stamps to notary seals, nameplates, business cards, notary bonds and more. These notary supplies can easily be purchased at an online store that offer you with everything from stamps to seals and other office supplies that you will require to launch a successful notary career or business.

The primary aim of these online stores is to support the notaries in Florida, California, Texas, New York, Ohio, Arizona and all other states of USA and serve them as a one stop reliable source for notary products like Florida stamps, California stamps, Arizona stamps and other office supplies. They can guide and provide you with the following notary supplies:

1. Custom Stamps:

The notary stamps offered by online companies are ideal for different kinds of notary/legal applications. They offer different types of custom stamps in their notary supplies package.

The package includes the following:

• Custom ProStamp: ProStamp offered by these online stores renders high impact, lifetime guarantee as well as durability. These stamps offer a custom image in one quick motion. Pre-Inking technology used in these stamps provides a clean, crisp image with exceptional detail.

• Custom Self Inking Stamps: These stamps are perfect for medium repetition jobs. Each stamp makes thousands of impressions offering you with years of trouble-free use.

2. Business Cards and Stationery:

The online stores provide different types of personalized business cards for notaries.

3. Nameplates and Badges:

The online stores offer enticing and economical engraved Name Badges and Nameplates. You can select from a variety of surface colors and fasteners to enhance your company's identity.

4. Replica Plaque:

They provide different types of replica plaques of first share certificate. You can mark the beginning of your path to corporate success with a replica certificate of your achievement.

5. Document Filing System:

The notary supply package offered by the online stores contains everything you need to become a successful notary. They offer a guide to filing; to assist you organize your small business documents. It contains pre-printed tabbed folders plus tips and advice.

Article Source:

<http://www.articleside.com/business-articles/notary-public-supplies-what-all-do-you-need.htm> -
Article Side

Daniel P. Gallagher - About Author:

Author, John P. Gallagher is the President at Notary Service and Bonding Agency Inc. Notary Service and Bonding Agency Inc. offers everything one need to become a notary public in Michigan, Florida, Texas, Missouri, Illinois, Washington, Pennsylvania and other states. They are the online source for high quality office supplies like a Illinois notary bonds, notary public seals and a Idaho notary bonds.

Article Keywords:

florida stamps, texas stamps

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!