Article Side

Property in Edinburgh for Student Accommodation; Considering Student Preferences

by Lindsay Thomson

Article published on March 27th 2012 | Business

Scottish government is encouraging to the foreign students for study in Edinburgh so many students are magnetize to come in Edinburgh. So thatâ€™s why the property to rent in edinburgh is in huge demand. Tenants are to be fond of that property which is closer to universities, colleges and bus stops. Therefore the landlords want to rent their property in edinburgh to the students. But they rent out property to those students who take for the whole year. There are many types to build the Edinburgh accommodation for example halls of residence, houses of multiple occupations. Private landlords are coming in this field because of growing demand of students.

Plus Side Of Renting Property to Students:

Day by day demand of Edinburgh student accommodation is increasing over the supply so thatâ€™s why the rents are also increasing. This is fact that the students do not hesitate to share the accommodation in edinburgh along with kitchen and bathroom. Hence there can be more tenants in a studentâ€™s let and accordingly yield will be high. If the students take the property to rent in edinburgh then it means that property will keep on rent for the short term. Also the fact that studentâ€™s are tolerant, undemanding and easy going.

Downside of Renting Property To Students:

You must be ready for some problems. It means that the student can be loud and trouble making person in this way you can be penalized by the local counsel authority. Mostly in summer season the properties are vacant. Furthermore, student tenants also have troubles providing credit references. Most of the students want to live in the groups because of upholding high bills of those properties. Researches have also exposed that with the rising number of private purpose built student accommodation, the demand for private lettings is declining.

Playing Safe When Renting Property to Students:

If you want to have the safe corner as a landlord of the students then you have to take some important steps. You must let out your property only to those students that have been recommended by their colleges. It means they are at good way to start. In case of failure to pay the rent from the student after that you should ask for the guarantor. The landlord must make an inventory of the state of the property and its items and explain the tenants that they will be accountable for any repairs and damage to the property.

Student Preferences:

In a nutshell, the students are looking for good value for money and convenience. Most of the students want to rent out that property which is nearer to the educational institutions. Sometimes they prefer that property which closes to their friends. Most of students do not have their own car so they will prefer the property which would be closer to shops, bars, cafÃ©, restaurants, banks and local stores.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/business-articles/property-in-edinburgh-for-student-accommodation-considering-student-preferences.htm - Article Side

Lindsay Thomson - About Author:
Lindsay Thomson is a marketing officer for Greenlet, property lettings website in Edinburgh. If you want more information on a property to rent in edinburgh, please visit a edinburgh flats to rent.

Article Keywords:
property to rent in edinburgh, edinburgh student accommodation, edinburgh student flats, rent flat in edinburgh, property in edinburgh, accommodation in edinburgh

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!