Edinburgh the capital of Scotland is a city of geographical and cultural diversity. Edinburgh is one of the richest cities because of its natural beauty like Arthurâ€™s Seat, Gullane beaches, Pentlands, Port in Leith, to name a few. The city has number of places to attract tourists towards it, leading amongst these are, the Edinburgh Castle, Our Dynamic Earth, Holyrood Palace, Camera Obscurer, etc. Edinburgh is an attractive place for the people of all age groups due to its entertainment, fun and knowledge. Above all the city is a strong figure of vibrant economy.

TO LET DURING FESTIVAL: A number of tourists come to this city from all over the world every year to attend the festival which is organized in Edinburgh in the month of august. The population of Edinburgh gets double due to the huge number of tourists. It is considered to be second home by the people who are away from their homes. There are flats, houses and apartments which are available to let specially for festival accommodation. One of the flats for festival accommodation is located in the Edinburgh city centre. This is one of the most important locations in Edinburgh, because all Edinburgh festival venues for arts, music, film and fringe are closer to it. This area is not only attractive for the tourists but also fascinates landlords. So they let Edwardian townhouses in the west end of Edinburgh during this season for holiday accommodation.

FLATS TO LET IN HARBOUR AREAS: In current years the focus for property development, with an increasing invasion of young professionals, partially influenced by the location of the new Scottish Government building, has been in the old harbour areas of Leith and Ocean Terminal.

Furthermore expansion of property market in Bonneyrigg, Penicuik and Midlothian towns in the south is the cause of higher rents in the city.

FLATS TO LET FOR STUDENTS: Edinburgh has some universities which are listed as best universities in the world. This top ranking attracts the students to Edinburgh. Recently it is observed that new students reside in university halls of residence in first year but after first year they prefer to reside into private rental flats. However, situation is changing as private rental accommodation is preferred by many students. Good value, more space, more privacy and better living standards are making these flats more popular amongst students. There are some affordable student flats to let on Leith, Easter Road, Abbeyhill, Haymarket, Blackford, City Centre, Marchmont etc. All these flats are closer to the oldest university in Scotland, namely, University of Edinburgh. Flats in these areas are a walking distance of Napier University and the University of Edinburgh.
